

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Dolar Koya
DOCKET NO.: 20-32095.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 18-18-302-038-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Dolar Koya, the appellant, by Amy C. Floyd, Attorney at Law in Chicago, and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $15,660
IMPR.: $72,971
TOTAL: $88,631

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2020 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a two-story dwelling of brick exterior construction with 4,510 square feet of living area. The dwelling is 39 years old. Features of the home include a full basement, central air conditioning, a fireplace, and a three and one-half car garage. The property has a 21,600 square foot site and is located in Burr Ridge, Lyons Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-08 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity with respect to the improvement as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument the appellant submitted information on four equity comparables improved with two-story, class 2-08 dwellings of brick or frame and brick exterior construction that range in size from 4,131 to 4,937 square feet of living area. The homes are from 31 to 37 years old. Each comparable has a full or partial basement with one having finished area, central air conditioning, and one to three fireplaces.<sup>1</sup> The comparables have the same assessment neighborhood code as the subject and two are located on the same block as the subject property. The comparables have improvement assessments that range from $54,491 to $62,545 or from $12.28 to $14.87 per square foot of living area. The appellant requested the subject's improvement assessment be reduced to $62,960.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $88,631. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $72,971 or $16.18 per square foot of living area.

In support of its contention of the correct assessment the board of review submitted information on three equity comparables improved with two-story, class 2-08 dwellings of brick exterior construction that range in size from 3,884 to 4,450 square feet of living area. The homes are either 35 or 39 years old. Each comparable has a full or partial basement with one having finished area, central air conditioning, two or three fireplaces, and either a one and one-half, two, or two and one-half car garage. The comparables have the same assessment neighborhood code as the subject and are located on the same block as the subject property. The comparables have improvement assessments that range from $69,627 to $82,801 or from $16.82 to $19.96 per square foot of living area.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The record contains seven equity comparables submitted by the parties to support their respective positions. The Board gives less weight to the board of review's comparable #2, as well as the appellant's comparable #1, based on differences from the subject dwelling in terms of size. The Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity to be the remaining comparables. These comparables are relatively similar to the subject dwelling in terms of size, age, location, although adjustments to some of the comparables, to account for differences in some features, would be needed to make them more equivalent to the subject. Three of these comparables are also located on the same block as the subject property. These comparables are from 31 to 39 years old, range in size from 4,131 to 4,450 square feet of living area and have improvement assessments ranging from $54,491 to $82,801 or from $13.19 to $19.96 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $72,971 or $16.18 per square foot of living area falls within the range established by the best comparables in the record. Based on this evidence and after considering appropriate adjustments to the best comparables for differences from the subject, the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
