

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Cornelia Grumman
DOCKET NO.: 20-38339.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 14-17-303-032-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Cornelia Grumman, the appellant(s), by attorney John P. Brady, of Tully & Associates, LTD. in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds A Reduction in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $17,299
IMPR.: $88,879
TOTAL: $106,178

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2020 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a 19-year-old, two-story, single-family dwelling of masonry construction with 3,252 square feet of living area. The property has a 3,604 square foot site located in Lake View, Chicago Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-95 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted information on five suggested equity comparable properties. They were each improved with a two-story, single-family dwelling of masonry construction. The improvements ranged in improvement assessment from $16.95 to $20.31 per square foot of living area. They each contained 1,316 square feet of living area. The appellant also included a copy of the board of review's written decision reflecting a total assessment for the subject property of $118,310. The appellant's petition indicates that the subject property is owner occupied. Based on its equity evidence submitted, the appellant requests the total assessment of the subject property be reduced to $72,420.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $118,310. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $101,011, or $31.06 per square foot of living area. In support of its contention of the correct assessment, the board of review submitted information on four suggested comparables. They were each improved with a two-story, single-family dwelling of either masonry or frame construction. They ranged in living area square feet from 2,594 to 3,165 and in improvement assessment from $28.61 to $37.12 per square foot of living area.

This matter proceeded to hearing on February 10, 2025. For the first time, the appellant's attorney raised a contention of law claim. The appellant's attorney stated that the subject property was the subject matter of an appeal before the Property Tax Appeal Board under Docket Number 2019-27390. In that appeal the Property Tax Appeal Board issued a decision lowering the total assessment of the subject property to $106,178. The appellant's attorney requested the assessment of the subject property as established by the Property Tax Appeal Board for the 2019 tax year be carried forward to the 2020 tax year pursuant to rollover statute. The board of review representative rested on the evidence previously submitted.

Conclusion of Law

The appellant raised a contention of law asserting that the assessment of the subject property as established by the Property Tax Appeal Board for the 2019 tax year should be carried forward to the 2020 tax year pursuant to section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code. (35 ILCS 200/16-185). When a contention of law is raised the burden of proof is a preponderance of the evidence. (See 5 ILCS 100/10-15). The Board finds the appellant met this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted.

The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that the assessment as established by the Board for the 2019 tax year should be carried forward to the tax year at issue subject only to equalization as provided by section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code.

Section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-185) states in part:

If the Property Tax Appeal Board renders a decision lowering the assessment of a particular parcel on which a residence occupied by the owner is situated, such reduced assessment, subject to equalization, shall remain in effect for the remainder of the general assessment period as provided in Sections 9-215 through 9-225, unless that parcel is subsequently sold in an arm's length transaction establishing a fair cash value for the parcel that is different from the fair cash value on which the Board's assessment is based, or unless the decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board is reversed or modified upon review.

The record disclosed the Property Tax Appeal Board issued a decision reducing the subject's assessment for the 2019 tax year. The record further indicates that 2019 and 2020 are within the same general assessment period. The record contains no evidence indicating the subject property sold in an arm's length transaction after the Board's decision or that the decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board has been reversed or modified upon review. The board of review did not object to the subject's occupancy. For these reasons the Property Tax Appeal Board finds that a reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted to reflect the assessment as established in the Board's prior year's decision. The Board now finds the subject property fairly and equitably assessed.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
