

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Aleks & Valentya Yakovenko
DOCKET NO.: 20-40060.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 18-20-201-032-1041

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Aleks & Valentya Yakovenko, the appellants, by attorney Holly Zeilinga, of Worsek & Vihon in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $660
IMPR.: $7,639
TOTAL: $8,299

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellants timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2020 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a residential condominium unit with 800 square feet of living area. The dwelling is approximately 44 years old. The property has an ownership interest of 1.8506% in the common elements of the condominium and is located in Countryside, Lyons Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-99 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellants' appeal is based on overvaluation. In support of this argument the appellants submitted evidence disclosing the subject property was purchased on March 30, 2018 for a price of $70,000. The appellants completed Section IV – Recent Sale Data of the appeal petition disclosing the parties to the sale were not related, the property sold through a realtor and was advertised for sale on the Multiple Listing Service for 4 days, and the sale was not due to foreclosure or by contract for deed. In support of the sale, the appellants submitted a copy of a settlement statement and a listing sheet. Based on this evidence, the appellants requested a reduction in the subject's assessment to reflect the purchase price.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $8,299. The subject's assessment reflects a market value of $82,999 or $103.75 per square foot of living area, land included, when using the level of assessment for class 2 property of 10% under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

In support of its contention of the correct assessment, the board of review submitted a condominium analysis based on the sale of the subject for a price of $70,000 and 10 other sales in the same condominium as the subject, resulting in a full value for the condominium of $4,550,705. These units have from 1.8014% to 2.3526% ownership interests in the common elements of the condominium (totaling 23.5458%) and sold from February 2017 to July 2019 for prices ranging from $65,000 to $125,000. The board of review asserted the subject parcel has a market value of $84,215 based on its 1.8506% ownership interest in the common elements of the condominium. Based on this evidence, the board of review requested confirmation of the subject's assessment.

Conclusion of Law

The appellants contend the market value of the subject property is not accurately reflected in its assessed valuation. When market value is the basis of the appeal the value of the property must be proved by a preponderance of the evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of market value may consist of an appraisal of the subject property, a recent sale, comparable sales or construction costs. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(c). The Board finds the appellants did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The record contains evidence of a March 2018 sale of the subject presented by the appellants and an analysis based on a sale of eleven units in the subject's condominium, including the subject's sale, presented by the board of review. The Board gave less weight to the March 2018 sale of the subject, which occurred more remote in time from the assessment and is less likely to be indicative of market value as of that date. Similarly, the Board also gives less weight to the board of review's 2017, January 2018, and April 2018 sales as these sales are less likely to be indicative of market value as of the assessment date.

The Board finds the best evidence of market value to be the August 2018, September 2018, and July 2019 sales presented by the board of review, which sold more proximate in time to the January 1, 2020 assessment date. These sales have an aggregate sale price of $539,500 and represent an 11.1331% ownership interest in the common elements of the condominium, resulting in a full value for the condominium of $4,845,910. Based on the foregoing, the subject would have a market value of $89,678. The subject's assessment reflects a market value of $82,999, which falls below the market value developed through this analysis of the best comparables sales in the record. Based on this evidence, the Board finds no reduction in the subject's assessment is justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
