

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Karey Ann Williams
DOCKET NO.: 20-47289.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 10-20-214-026-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Karey Ann Williams, the appellant, by attorney George N. Reveliotis, of Reveliotis Law, P.C. in Park Ridge; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $4,752
IMPR.: $16,574
TOTAL: $21,326

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2020 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a 1.5-story dwelling of frame and masonry exterior construction with 1,010 square feet of living area. The dwelling is approximately 69 years old. Features of the home include a basement with finished area, central air conditioning, and a 1.5-car garage. The property has a 5,940 square foot site located in Morton Grove, Niles Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-03 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity with respect to the improvement as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted information on six equity comparables that are located within the same neighborhood code as the subject property. The comparables are improved with "1.5-1.9"-story, class code 2-03 dwellings of masonry or frame and masonry exterior construction ranging in size from 1,440 to 1,751 square feet of living area.

The dwellings range from 69 to 92 years old. Three comparables each have a basement, three of which have finished area. Three comparables each have central air conditioning, two comparables each have one fireplace, and five comparables have either a 1-car or a 2-car garage. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $19,627 to $23,489 or from $13.41 to $14.39 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested that the subject's improvement assessment be reduced.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $21,326. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $16,574 or $16.41 per square foot of living area.

In support of its contention of the correct assessment, the board of review submitted information on four suggested equity comparables that are located within the same neighborhood code as the subject. The comparables are improved with 1-story or 1.5-story, class 2-03 dwellings of masonry or frame and masonry exterior construction ranging in size from 1,010 to 1,179 square feet of living area. The dwellings range from 62 to 69 years old. Three comparables each have a basement, three of which have finished area. Two comparables each have central air conditioning, one comparable has one fireplace, and three comparables have from a 1-car to a 2.5-car garage. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $20,051 to $21,820 or from $18.40 to $21.59 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the board of review requested that the subject's assessment be confirmed.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The parties submitted ten suggested comparables for the Board's consideration. The Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity to be board of review comparables #1 and #4 which are overall more similar to the subject in location, design, age, dwelling size, and most features. The best comparables have improvement assessments of $21,691 and $21,804 or $18.40 and $21.59 per square foot of living area. The subject property's improvement assessment of $16,574 or $16.41 per square foot of living area falls below the two best comparables in this record and is well supported when compared to board of review comparable #1 which is identical to the subject in age and dwelling but lacks central air conditioning as well as having a smaller garage size than the subject. The Board gives less weight to the appellant's comparables as well as board of review comparables #2 and #3 due to differences from the subject including design, dwelling size, and/or age. Based on this record and after considering adjustments to the best comparables for differences when compared to the subject, the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
