

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Christopher Reams
DOCKET NO.: 20-49112.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 04-32-403-017-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Christopher Reams, the appellant(s), by attorney Edwin M. Wittenstein, of Worsek & Vihon in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds A Reduction in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $7,508
IMPR.: $64,554
TOTAL: $72,062

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2020 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board (PTAB) finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of an owner occupied 22-year-old, two-story, single-family dwelling of masonry construction with 3,910 square feet of living area. Features of the home include a full unfinished basement, central air conditioning, two fireplaces and a two-car garage. The property has a 10,011 square foot site and located in Glenview, Northfield Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-08 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted information on three suggested equity comparable properties.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $83,973. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $72,961 or $18.66 per square foot of living area. In support of its contention of the correct assessment, the board of review submitted information on four suggested equity comparable properties.

In rebuttal, the appellant submitted the PTAB 2019 decision reducing the total assessment for the subject and requested a rollover pursuant to Section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-185). The appellant argued that the subject is an owner-occupied residential property and that the 2019 and 2020 tax years are within the same general assessment period.

Conclusion of Law

In rebuttal the appellant asserted the subject qualifies for a “rollover” of the Property Tax appeal Board’s 2019 decision lowering the subject’s total assessment to $72,062 pursuant to Section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-185). “Unless otherwise provided by law or stated in the agency's rules, the standard of proof in any contested case hearing conducted under this Act by an agency shall be the preponderance of the evidence.” 5ILCS 100/10-15.

The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that the assessment as established by the Board for the 2019 tax year should be carried forward to the tax year at issue subject only to equalization as provided by section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code.

Section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code provides, in relevant part:

If the Property Tax Appeal Board renders a decision lowering the assessment of a particular parcel on which a residence occupied by the owner is situated, such reduced assessment, subject to equalization, shall remain in effect for the remainder of the general assessment period as provided in Sections 9-215 through 9-225, unless that parcel is subsequently sold in an arm’s length transaction establishing a fair cash value for the parcel that is different from the fair cash value on which the Board’s assessment is based, or unless the decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board is reversed or modified upon review.

35 ILCS 200/16-185. Additionally, “Standard of proof. Unless otherwise provided by law or stated in the agency’s rules, the standard of proof in any contested case hearing conducted under this Act by an agency shall be the preponderance of the evidence.” 5 ILCS 100/10-15. The Board takes official notice that it rendered a decision lowering the subject’s assessment for tax year 2019 (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.90(i)), and that tax year 2019 and the instant tax year of 2020 are in the same general assessment period for Northfield Township. The Board further finds that the subject is owner-occupied based on the appellant’s statement of the appeal form, which states that the subject is owner-occupied. The record contains no evidence indicating that the subject sold in an arm’s-length transaction subsequent to the Board’s decision for the 2019 tax year, or that the Board’s decision for the 2019 tax year was reversed or modified upon review. For these reasons, the Board finds that by a preponderance of the evidence, that the subject’s assessment should be carried forward to the 2020 tax year, pursuant to section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code, to reflect the Board's decision for the 2019 tax year, plus the application of an equalization factor, if any.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
