

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Patrick McAllister
DOCKET NO.: 21-02516.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 15-23-211-016

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Patrick McAllister, the appellant, by attorney Robert Rosenfeld, of Robert H. Rosenfeld & Associates, LLC in Chicago; and the Lake County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Lake County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $65,772
IMPR.: $92,617
TOTAL: $158,389

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Lake County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2021 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a 1-story dwelling with wood siding exterior construction with 2,176 square feet of living area. The dwelling was built in 1966 with an effective year built of 1969 and is approximately 55 years old. Features of the home include a basement with finished area, central air conditioning, one fireplace, and an attached 1,048 square foot garage. The property has an approximately 20,038 square foot site and is located in Lincolnshire, Vernon Township, Lake County.

The appellant contends assessment inequity with respect to the subject's improvement as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument the appellant submitted assessment information on four equity comparables with the same assessment neighborhood code as the subject property and located within 1.0 mile from the subject. The comparables are improved with 1-story dwellings ranging in size from 2,306 to 2,600 square feet of living area. The dwellings range in age from 48 to 58 years old. Each comparable has a basement with one having finished area, central air conditioning, one or two fireplaces, and an attached garage ranging in size from 462 to 576 square feet of building area. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $88,161 to $103,708 or from $38.23 to $39.89 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested the subject's improvement assessment be reduced to $85,065 or $39.09 per square foot of living area.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $158,389. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $92,617 or $42.56 per square foot of living area.

In support of its contention of the correct assessment the board of review submitted information on five equity comparables with the same assessment neighborhood code as the subject property and located within 0.42 a mile from the subject. The comparables are improved with 1-story dwellings ranging in size from 1,919 to 2,252 square feet of living area. The dwellings were built from 1957 to 1980 with comparables #2 and #5 having effective years built of 1969 and 1965, respectively. Each comparable has a finished basement with one being a walkout style, central air conditioning, and an attached garage ranging in size from 400 to 768 square feet of building area. Four comparables each have one or two fireplaces. Comparable #4 has an inground swimming pool. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $81,881 to $101,840 or from $42.67 to $48.22 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence the board of review requested confirmation of the subject's assessment.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity with respect to the subject's improvement as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The parties submitted a total of nine equity comparables for the Board's consideration. The Board gives less weight to the appellant's comparables and board of review comparables #1 and #5 which differ from the subject in dwelling size, age, and/or lack basement finish, a feature of the subject. The Board also gives less weight to board of review comparable #4 which has an inground swimming pool, unlike the subject.

The Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity to be board of review comparables #2 and #3 which are overall more similar to the subject in location, design, age, dwelling size, and most features. The comparables have improvement assessments of $95,791 and $101,840 or of $42.96 and $48.22 per square foot of living area, respectively. The subject's improvement assessment of $92,617 or $42.56 per square foot of living area falls below the improvement assessments of the two best comparable in the record. Based on the record, the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement is inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
