

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Bernice Teplitsky
DOCKET NO.: 21-03037.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 16-31-110-004

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Bernice Teplitsky, the appellant, by attorney Anthony DeFrenza, of the Law Office of DeFrenza & Mosconi PC in Northbrook; and the Lake County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Lake County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $78,287
IMPR.: $128,130
TOTAL: $206,417

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Lake County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2021 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a one-story dwelling of wood siding exterior construction with 2,819 square feet of living area. The dwelling was constructed in 1994 and is approximately 27 years old. Features of the home include an unfinished basement, central air conditioning and a 500 square foot garage. The property is located in Riverwoods, West Deerfield Township, Lake County.

The appellant contends assessment inequity, with respect to the improvement assessment, as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted information on four equity comparables located in the same assessment neighborhood code as the subject and within 641 feet of the subject property. The comparables are improved with one-story dwellings of wood siding exterior construction with 2,721 or 2,819 square feet of living area. The homes are either 26 or 27 years old. Each comparable has an unfinished basement, central air conditioning and a garage with either 500 or 528 square feet of building area. Three comparables each have one fireplace. The comparables have improvement assessments that range from $91,854 to $97,044 or from $33.76 to $34.42 per square foot of living area.

The appellant submitted comments arguing that of 89 comparable properties in the subject's neighborhood, 47.19% have lower assessments than the subject. The appellant also noted that one of the equity comparables sold in January 2019 for $525,000. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested the subject's improvement assessment be reduced to $96,289 or $34.16 per square foot of living area.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $206,417. The subject has an improvement assessment of $128,130 or $45.45 per square foot of living area.

In support of its contention of the correct assessment, the board of review submitted information on five equity comparables located in the same assessment neighborhood code as the subject and within 503 feet of the subject property. The comparables are improved with one-story dwellings of wood siding exterior construction each with 2,819 square feet of living area. The homes were built in either 1994 or 1995. Each comparable has a basement with one having finished area. Each dwelling has central air conditioning, one fireplace and a 500 square foot garage. The comparables have improvement assessments of $129,980 or $155,495 or for $46.11 or $55.16 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the board of review requested the subject's assessment be confirmed.

Conclusion of Law

The appellant contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments, for the assessment year in question, of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The parties submitted nine equity comparables for the Board's consideration. The Board gives less weight to appellant comparable #1 and board of review comparable #3 which are differ from the subject in dwelling size and/or have a finished basement.

The Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity to be appellant comparables #2, #3 and #4 along with board of review comparables #1, #2, #4 and #5 which are similar to the subject in location and nearly identical to the subject in age, design, dwelling size and other features. These best comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $96,327 to $129,980 or from $34.17 to $46.11 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $128,130 or $45.45 per square foot of living area falls within the range established by the best comparables in this record. After considering appropriate adjustments to the best comparables for differences from the subject, the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
