

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Anjela Tanzillo
DOCKET NO.: 21-03121.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 14-28-201-005

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Anjela Tanzillo, the appellant, by attorney Robert Rosenfeld, of Robert H. Rosenfeld & Associates, LLC in Chicago; and the Lake County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Lake County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $40,956
IMPR.: $118,326
TOTAL: $159,282

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Lake County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2021 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a two-story dwelling of frame exterior construction with 2,981 square feet of living area. The dwelling was constructed in 1977. Features of the home include an unfinished basement, central air conditioning, two fireplaces and a 576 square foot garage. The property has an approximately 45,267 square foot site and is located in Kildeer, Ela Township, Lake County.

The appellant contends assessment inequity, with respect to the improvement assessment, as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted information on four comparables that are located within .41 of a mile from the subject and within the same assessment neighborhood code as the subject. The comparables are improved with two-story dwellings of brick, frame or brick and frame exterior construction that range in size from 2,827 to 3,309 square feet of living area. The dwellings were built from 1966 to 1977. Each comparable has an unfinished basement, central air conditioning, one or two fireplaces and a garage ranging in size from 437 to 925 square feet of building area. The comparables have improvement assessments that range from $106,911 to $122,989 or from $36.42 to $38.08 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested the subject's improvement assessment be reduced to $111,407 or $37.37 per square foot of living area.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $159,282. The subject has an improvement assessment of $118,326 or $39.69 per square foot of living area.

In support of its contention of the correct assessment, the board of review submitted information on five comparables that are located within .41 of a mile from the subject and within the same assessment neighborhood code as the subject property. The board of review's comparable #3 is the same property as the appellant's comparable #1. The comparables are improved with two-story dwellings of brick and frame exterior construction that range in size from 2,837 to 3,099 square feet of living area. The dwellings were built from 1966 to 1977. Each comparable has an unfinished basement, central air conditioning, one to three fireplaces and a garage ranging in size from 437 to 854 square feet of building area. The comparables have improvement assessments that range from $114,243 to $130,426 or from $38.08 to $42.63 per square foot of living area.

Conclusion of Law

The appellant contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments, for the assessment year in question, of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The record contains a total of eight suggested equity comparables for the Board's consideration, as one comparable is common to the parties. The Board gives less weight to the appellant's comparable #1/board of review comparable #3 and appellant's comparables #2 and #4 which are less similar to the subject in dwelling size and/or age than other comparables in the record.

The Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity to be the appellant's comparable #3 and the board of review comparables #1, #2, #4 and #5 which are overall more similar to the subject in location, dwelling size, age, and most features. These five comparables have improvement assessments that range from $106,911 to $130,426 or from $37.82 to $42.63 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $118,326 or $39.69 per square foot of living area falls within the range established by the best comparables in the record. Based on this record and after considering adjustments to the best comparables for differences when compared to the subject, the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
