

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Rene Oppenheim
DOCKET NO.: 21-03393.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 15-36-206-001

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Rene Oppenheim, the appellant, by attorney Robert Rosenfeld, of Robert H. Rosenfeld & Associates, LLC in Chicago; and the Lake County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Lake County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $79,089
IMPR.: $112,411
TOTAL: $191,500

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Lake County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2021 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a 1-story dwelling of wood siding exterior construction with 2,433 square feet of living area. The dwelling was built in 1995 and is approximately 26 years old. Features of the home include a basement with finished area, central air conditioning, one fireplace, and an attached 488 square foot garage. The property has an approximately 11,761 square foot site and is located in Riverwoods, Vernon Township, Lake County.

The appellant contends assessment inequity with respect to the improvement as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument the appellant submitted information on four equity comparables with the same assessment neighborhood code as the subject and located within 0.34 of a mile from the subject. The comparables are improved with 1-story dwellings with 2,244 or 2,433 square feet of living area. The dwellings are 23 or 26 years old. Each comparable has a basement with one having finished area, central air conditioning, one fireplace, and an attached 468 or 488 square foot garage. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $79,653 to $105,628 or from $32.74 to $43.41 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence the appellant requested a reduction in the subject's improvement assessment to $98,962 or $40.67 per square feet of living area.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $191,500. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $112,411 or $46.20 per square foot of living area.

In support of its contention of the correct assessment, the board of review submitted information on four equity comparables with the same assessment neighborhood code as the subject and located within 0.29 of a mile from the subject. Board of review comparable #4 is the same property as the appellant's comparable #4. The comparables are improved with 1-story dwellings with 2,433 square feet of living area. The dwellings were built in 1995 or 1997. Each comparable has an unfinished basement, central air conditioning, one fireplace, and an attached 488 square foot garage. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $105,628 to $106,664 or from $43.41 to $43.84 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence the board of review requested confirmation of the subject's assessment.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The parties submitted a total of seven equity comparables for the Board's consideration which includes the parties' common comparable. The Board gives less weight to the appellant's comparable #1 which differs from the subject in dwelling size. The Board gives reduced weight to the appellant's comparable #2 which has an improvement assessment that is considerably lower than the other comparables in this record.

The Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity to be the parties' remaining comparables which are identical to the subject in dwelling size with varying degrees of similarity in location, design, age, and other features. However, each of these comparables lacks finished basement area, which is a feature of the subject. Nevertheless, the best comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $105,628 to $106,664 or from $43.39 to $43.84 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $112,411 or $46.20 per square foot of living area falls above the range established by the best comparables in the record. However, after considering adjustments to the parties' comparables for differences when compared to the subject, such as their lack of finished basement area, the Board finds the subject's higher improvement assessment is justified. Based on this record, the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement is inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
