

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Alexander Etinger
DOCKET NO.: 21-03527.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 15-32-208-008

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Alexander Etinger, the appellant, by attorney Robert Rosenfeld, of Robert H. Rosenfeld and Associates, LLC in Chicago; and the Lake County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds no change in the assessment of the property as established by the Lake County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $27,596
IMPR.: $85,512
TOTAL: $113,108

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Lake County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2021 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a 2-story dwelling of wood siding exterior construction with 2,115 square feet of living area. The dwelling was constructed in 1970 and is approximately 51 years old. The home is built on a crawl-space foundation and features central air conditioning, a fireplace, and an attached garage with 500 square feet of building area. The property has a site with 8,770 square feet of land area and is located in Buffalo Grove, Vernon Township, Lake County.

The appellant contends assessment inequity with respect to the improvement as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted information on four equity comparables located in the same assessment neighborhood code as the subject property. The comparables consist of 2-story dwellings of wood siding exterior construction each containing 2,115 square feet of living area. The comparables are either 49 or 51 years old. The comparables are each built on a crawl-space foundation and each home features central air conditioning, a fireplace, and an attached garage with 500 square feet of building area. The comparables have improvement assessments that range from $66,267 to $79,360 or from $31.33 to $37.52 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested the subject's improvement assessment be reduced.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $113,108. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $85,512 or $40.43 per square foot of living area.

In support of its contention of the correct assessment, the board of review submitted information on five equity comparables located in the same assessment neighborhood code as the subject property. The comparables consist of 2-story dwellings of wood siding exterior construction each containing 2,115 square feet of living area. The homes were built from 1969 to 1972 on crawl-space foundations. Each comparable features central air conditioning, a fireplace, and an attached garage with 500 square feet of building area. The comparables have improvement assessments that range from $90,843 to $97,791 or from $42.95 to $46.24 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the board of review requested the subject's assessment be confirmed.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The parties submitted a total of nine equity comparables in support of their positions before the Property Tax Appeal Board with substantial similarity to the subject in location, design, age, dwelling size, foundation, and features. These comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $66,267 to $97,791 or from $31.33 to $46.24 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $85,512 or $40.43 per square foot of living area falls within the range established by the comparables in this record both in terms of overall improvement assessment and on a per square foot basis.

The Board finds that the appellant did not establish by clear and convincing evidence that the subject dwelling is inequitably assessed. The constitutional provision for uniformity of taxation and valuation does not require mathematical equality. A practical uniformity, rather than an absolute one, is the test. Apex Motor Fuel Co. v. Barrett, 20 Ill. 2d 395 (1960). Although the comparables presented by the parties disclosed that properties with similar characteristics that are located within the same area are not assessed at identical levels, all that the constitution requires is a practical uniformity which appears to exist on the basis of the evidence. Therefore, on this record, a reduction in the subject's improvement assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
