

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Thomas Bang
DOCKET NO.: 21-24351.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 07-29-310-026-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Thomas Bang, the appellant, by attorney Andreas Mamalakis of the Law Offices of Andreas Mamalakis in Kenosha; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds no change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $2,562
IMPR.: $9,671
TOTAL: $12,233

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2021 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a 2-story townhome of frame exterior construction with 1,070 square feet of living area. The dwelling is approximately 41 years old. The home features a crawl space foundation, central air conditioning, a fireplace and a one-car garage. The property has a 1,767 square foot site and is located in Hanover Park, Schaumburg Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-95 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity with respect to the improvement as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument the appellant submitted information on five equity comparables that have the same assessment neighborhood code as the subject. The comparables are class 2-95 properties that are improved with 1-story, 1.5 to 1.9-story or 2-story townhomes of frame exterior construction ranging in size from 1,040 or 1,234 square feet of living area. The dwellings are from 37 to 39 years old. Comparable #2 has a full basement. Each comparable has one or two fireplaces and a one-car garage. Two comparables have central air conditioning. The comparables have improvement assessments that range from $4,868 to $7,534 or from $4.53 to $6.11 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested the subject's improvement assessment be reduced to $5,511 or $5.15 per square foot of living area.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $12,233. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $9,671 or $9.04 per square foot of living area.

In support of its contention of the correct assessment the board of review submitted information on four comparables that have the same assessment neighborhood code as the subject property. The comparables are class 2-95 properties that are improved with 2-story townhomes of frame exterior construction containing 1,046 or 1,070 square feet of living area. The dwellings are from 39 to 43 years old. Each dwelling has a crawl space foundation, central air conditioning, a fireplace and a one-car garage. Comparable #1 has other improvements which were not described. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $9,671 to $9,838 or from $9.16 to $9.25 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the board of review requested confirmation of the subject's assessment.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The parties submitted nine comparable properties for the Board's consideration. The Board has given less weight to the appellant's comparables due to their lack of central air conditioning and/or larger dwelling sizes, when compared to the subject. Additionally, the appellant's comparables #1 and #3 differ from the subject in story height and the appellant's comparable #2 has a basement, unlike the subject.

The Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity to be the four comparables submitted by the board of review, which are similar to the subject in location and similar, if not identical, to the subject in dwelling size, story height, foundation type, age and some features. These four comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $9,671 to $9,838 or from $9.16 to $9.25 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $9,671 or $9.04 per square foot of living area falls at the lower end of the range established by the best comparables in the record in terms of total improvement assessment and below the comparables on a per square foot of living area basis. After considering adjustments to the best comparables for differences from the subject, the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed.

The constitutional provision for uniformity of taxation and valuation does not require mathematical equality. A practical uniformity, rather than an absolute one, is the test. Apex Motor Fuel Co. v. Barrett, 20 Ill.2d 395 (1960). Although the comparables presented by the parties disclosed that properties located in the same area are not assessed at identical levels, all that the constitution requires is a practical uniformity, which appears to exist on the basis of the evidence presented.

Based on this record, the Board finds a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
