Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2021 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of 13 condominium units within a 91-year-old, multi-story, masonry, condominium building. The property is located in Chicago, Rogers Park Township, Cook County and is classified as a class 2-99 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends overvaluation as the basis of appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant's brief listed five one-bedroom comparables and five two-bedroom comparables located near the subject. The one-bedroom condominium units sold from July 2019 to January 2021 for prices ranging from $71,600 to $75,000. The two-bedroom condominium units sold from September 2019 to June 2021 for prices ranging from $75,000 to $126,000.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the subject's assessment of $140,488, which reflects a market value of $1,404,880 when using the level of assessment for class 2 property of 10% under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance. The units have individual assessments from $9,999 to $11,999 for market values from $99,990 to $119,990.

In support of its current assessment, the board of review submitted the sale of one of the subject units. This unit sold in May 2017 for $110,000. Dividing this price by the percentage of ownership of this unit, 7.2910%, reflects a market value for the whole building of $1,508,709.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends overvaluation as the basis of the appeal. When market value is the basis of the appeal the value of the property must be proved by a preponderance of the evidence.⁸⁶ Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of market value may consist of an appraisal of the subject property, a recent sale, comparable sales or construction costs. ⁸⁶ Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(c).

The Board finds the best evidence of market value to be all the sale comparables submitted by both parties. The units sold from May 2017 to June 2021 for prices ranging from 71,600 to $126,000. In comparison, the subject units have assessments which reflects a market value of $99,000 to $119,990 which are within the range of the comparables. After making adjustments to the comparables for differences in the characteristics, the Board finds the appellant has not proven by a preponderance of evidence that the subject was overvalued, and a reduction based on this is not warranted.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
