

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Adam Murphy
DOCKET NO.: 21-25791.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 02-23-112-003-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Adam Murphy, the appellant, and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds a reduction in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $ 3,822
IMPR.: $32,178
TOTAL: $36,000

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board pursuant to section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-185) challenging the assessment for the 2021 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property is improved with an owner-occupied residence.

The appellant contends in part that the assessment of the subject property as established by the decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board for the 2019 tax year should be carried forward to the 2021 tax year pursuant to section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code. (35 ILCS 200/16-185). The appellant disclosed that the subject property is an owner-occupied residence that was the subject matter of an appeal before the Property Tax Appeal Board in a prior year under Docket Number 19-41725. In that appeal, the Property Tax Appeal Board issued a decision lowering the assessment of the subject property to $36,000 based on the evidence submitted by the parties. Additionally, the appellant contends that the subject property is entitled to a further reduction of 10.14% "due to COVID-19 hardships" wherein the Cook County Assessor's Office has reduced all residential assessments in Palatine Township, Neighborhood 60 in tax year 2021.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $41,083. The board of review acknowledged the appeal was filed as a "rollover" pursuant to Section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-185) based on the decision issued by the Property Tax Appeal Board in Docket No. 19-41725. The board of review further stated that 2019 was the first year of the general assessment cycle and no township equalization factor was applied by county assessment officials. The board of review had no objection to the rollover request.

Conclusion of Law

The appellant raised a contention of law asserting that the assessment of the subject property as established by the Property Tax Appeal Board for the 2019 tax year should be carried forward to the 2021 tax year pursuant to section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code. (35 ILCS 200/16-185). When a contention of law is raised the burden of proof is a preponderance of the evidence. (See 5 ILCS 100/10-15). The Board finds the appellant met this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted.

Section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-185) provides in part:

If the Property Tax Appeal Board renders a decision lowering the assessment of a particular parcel on which a residence occupied by the owner is situated, such reduced assessment, subject to equalization, shall remain in effect for the remainder of the general assessment period as provided in Sections 9-215 through 9-225, unless that parcel is subsequently sold in an arm's length transaction establishing a fair cash value for the parcel that is different from the fair cash value on which the Board's assessment is based, or unless the decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board is reversed or modified upon review. [Emphasis added.]

The record disclosed the subject property was the subject matter of an appeal in a prior tax year under Docket Number 19-41725.001-R-1. The Property Tax Appeal Board takes notice that it issued a decision in the 2019 appeal lowering the assessment of the subject property to $36,000 based on the evidence submitted by the parties. (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.90(i)). The record further indicates that the subject property is an owner occupied dwelling. The Board also finds based on the Board of Review – Notes on Appeal that the 2019 tax year and the 2021 tax years are within the same general assessment period. The record contains no evidence indicating the subject property sold in an arm's length transaction subsequent to the Board's 2019 decision or that the decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board was reversed or modified upon review. As a final point there was no showing that any COVID-19 hardship reduction should be applied to the subject's 2021 assessment in light of the terms of Section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code. For these reasons, the Property Tax Appeal Board finds that the assessment as established by this Board for the 2019 tax year should be carried forward to the 2021 tax year pursuant to the owner-occupied residence "rollover" provision provided by section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
