

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Dorota Wojslaw
DOCKET NO.: 21-32093.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 04-33-103-010-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Dorota Wojslaw, the appellant, by attorney Robert Rosenfeld, of Robert H. Rosenfeld & Associates, LLC in Northbrook; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds A Reduction in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $9,918
IMPR.: $38,628
TOTAL: $48,546

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2021 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a 2-story dwelling of frame and masonry exterior construction with 3,330 square feet of living area. The dwelling is approximately 57 years old. Features of the home include a partial unfinished basement, central air conditioning, a fireplace and a 2-car garage. The property has an 8,625 square foot site and is located in Glenview, Northfield Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-78 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity regarding the improvement as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument the appellant submitted information on four equity comparables with the same assessment neighborhood code and have varying degrees of similarity to the subject in age, dwelling size and features. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $33,389 to $40,831 or from $10.29 to $11.73 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence the appellant requested a reduction in the subject's improvement assessment.

The appellant's petition disclosed the subject is an owner-occupied residence.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $52,412. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $42,494 or $12.76 per square foot of living area. The board of review disclosed that 2019 was the first year of the General Assessment Cycle. In support of its contention of the correct assessment the board of review submitted information on three equity comparables with the same assessment neighborhood code as the subject and have varying degrees of similarity to the subject in age, dwelling size and features. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $36,271 to $43,346 or from $13.08 or $15.39 per square foot of living area.

The Property Tax Appeal Board takes notice that the subject property was the subject matter of an appeal before the Board in a previous year under Docket No. 20-35348. In that appeal the Property Tax Appeal Board issued a decision lowering the total assessment of the subject property to $48,546 based on the evidence of record.

Conclusion of Law

The appellant contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds a reduction in the subject's assessment is appropriate based on Section 16-185 of Property Tax Code.

The Board finds the subject property is an owner-occupied residence that was the subject matter of an appeal before the Property Tax Appeal Board for the 2020 tax year under Docket number 20-35348. In that appeal, the Property Tax Appeal Board issued a decision lowering the total assessment of the subject property to $48,546 based on the evidence submitted by the parties.

Section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-185) provides in part:

If the Property Tax Appeal Board renders a decision lowering the assessment of a particular parcel on which a residence occupied by the owner is situated, such reduced assessment, subject to equalization, shall remain in effect for the remainder of the general assessment period as provided in Sections 9-215 through 9-225, unless that parcel is subsequently sold in an arm's length transaction establishing a fair cash value for the parcel that is different from the fair cash value on which the Board's assessment is based, or unless the decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board is reversed or modified upon review.

The Board finds that the decision for the 2020 tax year should be carried forward to the 2021 tax year pursuant to section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-185). The Board finds that the 2020 and 2021 tax years are within the same general assessment period for Northfield Township. Additionally, the appellant indicated the subject property is an owner-occupied residence. The record contains no evidence indicating the subject property sold in an arm's length transaction after the Board's decision or that the decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board for the 2020 tax year has not yet been reversed or modified upon review. For these reasons the Property Tax Appeal Board finds a reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted to reflect the assessment as established in the Board's prior 2020 decision plus the application of an equalization factor, if any.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
