

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Gerardo Perez
DOCKET NO.: 21-33872.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 17-05-115-100-1001

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Gerardo Perez, the appellant, by attorney David R. Bass, of Field and Goldberg, LLC in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds A Reduction in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $7,455
IMPR.: $62,895
TOTAL: $70,350

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160), challenging the assessment for the 2021 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a condominium, a single-family dwelling of masonry construction. The property is located in Chicago, West Chicago Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-99 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant's appeal is based on overvaluation established by a recent sale. In support of the market value argument, the appellant submitted a settlement statement disclosing that the subject property was sold on September 14, 2020, for a price of $703,500. The appeal indicated that a realtor was involved and disclosed that the property was advertised for sale. The petition disclosed that the subject is not an owner-occupied residence. The appellant also submitted a warranty deed.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal," disclosing the subject's assessment of $91,305 with an improvement assessment of $83,850. The total assessment reflects a market value of $913,050 using the Cook County Real Estate Classification Ordinance level of assessment for class 2 property of 10%.

The matter was set for a hearing before an ALJ on February 27, 2025. Prior to hearing the parties entered into a written agreement to waive the hearing and have the matter decided on previously submitted evidence.

Conclusion of Law

The appellant contends the market value of the subject property is not accurately reflected in its assessed valuation. When market value is the basis of the appeal, the value of the property must be proved by a preponderance of the evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of market value may consist of an appraisal of the subject property, a recent sale, comparable sales or construction costs. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(c).

The Board finds the best evidence of market value to be the purchase of the subject property in September 2020 for a price of $703,500. The appellant submitted evidence of the sale of the subject, and the board of review did not show that the sale was not at arm's-length. In addition, the settlement statement includes realty commissions, and the transfer declaration attests that the subject was listed on the open market. Based on this record, the Board finds the subject property had a market value of $703,500 as of the lien date. Since the market value has been determined, the level of assessment of 10% for Class 2 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance shall apply, and a reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
