

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Joshua Levinson
DOCKET NO.: 21-34457.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 14-31-426-016-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Joshua Levinson, the appellant, by attorney Jeffrey A. Holland, of Holland Hicks Law, LLC in Chicago, and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $20,328
IMPR.: $175,672
TOTAL: $196,000

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2021 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a three-story dwelling of masonry exterior construction with 5,417 square feet of living area. The dwelling is approximately 13 years old. Features of the home include a full basement, 6½ bathrooms, central air conditioning, and a two-car garage containing 800 square feet of building area.¹ The property has a 2,904 square foot site and is located in Chicago, West Chicago Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-09 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity concerning the improvement as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted information on four equity comparables set forth in the Section V grid analysis along with a brief. The comparables are each located in the same neighborhood code as the subject and within .8 of a mile from the subject. The comparables are each multi-parcel properties which are improved with class 2-09 two-story or three-story dwellings of masonry exterior construction. The dwellings range in age from 10 to 22 years old and range in size from 5,037 to 6,492 square feet of living area. The comparables have basements, 4 to 8 bathrooms, central air conditioning, three or four fireplaces, and a garage ranging in size from 400 to 800 square feet of building area. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $66,100 to $105,117 or from $12.36 to $19.66 per square foot of living area.

Based on this evidence, the appellant requested a reduced improvement assessment of $106,498 or $19.66 per square foot of living area.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $196,000. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $175,672 or $32.43 per square foot of living area.

In support of its contention of the correct assessment, the board of review submitted information on four equity comparables located in the same neighborhood code and within ¼ of a mile from the subject. The comparables consist of either class 2-08 or class 2-09 three-story dwellings of masonry exterior construction that are 7 to 18 years old. The homes range in size from 4,384 to 5,080 square feet of living area. Each comparable has a full basement, with a formal recreation room, central air conditioning, 3 or 4 full bathrooms along with 1 or 2 half-baths, and one to four fireplaces. Each comparable has a two-car or a three-car garage. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $163,672 to $250,896 or from $32.28 to $50.11 per square foot of living area.

Based on this evidence, the board of review requested confirmation of the subject's assessment.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The parties submitted a total of eight equity comparables to support their respective positions before the Property Tax Appeal Board. The Board has given reduced weight to appellant's comparable #4 and board of review comparable #2, due to their significantly differing dwelling sizes when compared to the subject. The Board has also given reduced weight to appellant's comparable #1 as well as board of review comparable #1, due to their significantly differing ages when compared to the subject.

The Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity in the record are appellant's comparables #2 and #3 along with board of review comparables #3 and #4, which are each similar to the subject in age, exterior construction, size, foundation type, and some features. Adjustments to these four best comparables are necessary with regard to bathroom count and fireplace amenity when compared to the subject to make them more equivalent to the subject. These comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $69,363 to $163,982 or from $12.36 to $32.71 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $175,672 or $32.43 per square foot of living area falls above the range established by the best comparables in this record in terms of overall improvement assessment and is within the range on a per-square-foot of living area basis, which is logical given the subject's age, bathroom count, and dwelling size.

The constitutional provision for uniformity of taxation and valuation does not require mathematical equality. The requirement is satisfied if the intent is evident to adjust the taxation burden with a reasonable degree of uniformity and if such is the effect of the statute enacted by the General Assembly establishing the method of assessing real property in its general operation. A practical uniformity, rather than an absolute one, is the test. Apex Motor Fuel Co. v. Barrett, 20 Ill. 2d 395 (1960). Although the comparables presented by the parties disclosed that properties located in the same area are not assessed at identical levels, all that the constitution requires is a practical uniformity which appears to exist on the basis of the evidence.

Based on this record and after considering appropriate adjustments to the best comparables for differences when compared to the subject property, the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
