

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Silvia Parra
DOCKET NO.: 21-38766.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 18-31-408-017-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Silvia Parra, the appellant, by attorney Robert Rosenfeld, of Robert H. Rosenfeld & Associates, LLC in Northbrook; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds A Reduction in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $8,506
IMPR.: $59,100
TOTAL: $67,606

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2021 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a two-story dwelling of masonry exterior construction with 4,377 square feet of living area. The dwelling is approximately 24 years old. Features of the home include an unfinished basement, central air conditioning, one fireplace and a 2.5-car garage. The property has an approximately 12,152 square foot site and is located in Willow Springs, Lyons Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-08 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity with respect to the improvement as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument the appellant submitted information on four equity comparables that have the same assessment neighborhood code as the subject. The comparables have varying degrees of similarity when compared to the subject. The comparables have improvement assessments that range from $47,738 to $59,683 or from $11.93 to $13.68 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested the subject's improvement assessment be reduced to $55,282 or $12.63 per square foot of living area.

The appellant also disclosed in the appeal petition that the subject property is an owner occupied residence.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $69,965. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $61,459 or $14.04 per square foot of living area. The board of review also disclosed no equalization factor was applied in Lyons Township for tax year 2021.

In support of its contention of the correct assessment the board of review submitted information on three equity comparables that have the same assessment neighborhood code as the subject. The comparables have varying degrees of similarity when compared to the subject. The comparables have improvement assessments that range from $58,463 to $67,386 or from $13.53 to $16.19 per square of living area. Based on this evidence, the board of review requested confirmation of the subject's assessment.

The Property Tax Appeal Board takes judicial notice the subject property was the subject matter of appeal before the Board for the 2020 tax year under Docket No. 2020-27766.001-R-1. In that appeal, the Property Tax Appeal Board issued a decision lowering the total assessment of the subject property to $67,606 based on the evidence submitted by the parties. Furthermore, the Board finds the subject property for tax year 2021 is an owner-occupied residence, which was not refuted by the board of review.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds a reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted.

The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that the assessment as established by the Board for the 2020 tax year of $67,606 should be carried forward to the 2021 tax year subject only to equalization as provided by section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code.

Section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-185) states in part:

If the Property Tax Appeal Board renders a decision lowering the assessment of a particular parcel on which a residence occupied by the owner is situated, such reduced assessment, subject to equalization, shall remain in effect for the remainder of the general assessment period as provided in Sections 9-215 through 9-225, unless that parcel is subsequently sold in an arm's length transaction establishing a fair cash value for the parcel that is different from the fair cash value on which the Board's assessment is based, or unless the decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board is reversed or modified upon review.

The Property Tax Appeal Board finds the Board issued a decision reducing the subject's assessment for the 2020 tax year. The record indicates that the subject property is an owner occupied dwelling and that 2020 and 2021 are within the same general assessment period. The record further indicates no equalization factor was applied in Lyons Township for the 2021 tax year. Furthermore, the decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board for the 2020 tax year has not yet been reversed or modified upon review and there was no evidence the subject property recently sold establishing a different fair cash value. For these reasons the Property Tax Appeal Board finds that a reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted to reflect the assessment as established in the Board's prior year's decision.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
