

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: George Gabriel
DOCKET NO.: 21-39535.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 04-21-108-012-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are George Gabriel, the appellant, by attorney Andreas Mamalakis, of the Law Offices of Andreas Mamalakis, in Kenosha, and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $6,895
IMPR.: $33,841
TOTAL: $40,736

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2021 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal. By correspondence dated June 18, 2025, the appellant waived the hearing request.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a one-story dwelling of masonry exterior construction with 2,355 square feet of living area. The dwelling is approximately 43 years old. Features of the home include a partial unfinished basement, central air conditioning,¹ a fireplace, and a two-car garage. The property has a 5,746 square foot site and is located in Northbrook, Northfield Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-04 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity concerning the improvement as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted information on five equity comparables located in the same neighborhood code and from .08 to .20 of a mile from the subject. None of the comparables have the same “tax block” of 108 of the subject. The comparables consist of class 2-04 one-story dwellings of masonry exterior construction. The comparables range in age from 42 to 45 years old. The dwellings range in size from 1,916 to 2,364 square feet of living area. Three comparables have either full or partial basements and comparables #2 and #5 each have crawl-space foundations. Features include a fireplace, and a two-car garage. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $21,585 to $30,567 or from $10.92 to $12.93 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested a reduced improvement assessment of $28,284 or $12.01 per square foot of living area.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $40,736. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $33,841 or $14.37 per square foot of living area.

In support of its contention of the correct assessment, the board of review submitted information on four equity comparables located in the same neighborhood code and the same block as the subject. The comparables consist of class 2-04 one-story dwellings of masonry exterior construction which are each 43 years old. The dwellings range in size from 1,977 to 2,360 square feet of living area. Three comparables have partial basements and comparable #4 has a crawl-space foundation. Each comparable has central air conditioning, a fireplace, and a two-car garage. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $29,889 to $37,789 or from $15.03 to $16.03 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the board of review requested confirmation of the subject's assessment.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The parties submitted a total of nine suggested equity comparables to support their respective positions before the Property Tax Appeal Board. The Board has given reduced weight to appellant's comparables as well as board of review comparable #4, which differ in location, foundation type and/or lack central air conditioning, when compared to the subject property and other comparables in the record.

The Board finds the best equity comparables in the record are board of review comparables #1, #2 and #3, which are each 43 years old. These homes necessitate adjustments for differences in dwelling size when compared to the subject. The best comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $29,889 to $31,685 or from $15.03 to $16.03 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $33,841 or $14.37 per square foot of living area is above the range of the best comparables in terms of overall improvement assessment but below the range on a per-square-foot of living area basis, which the Board finds to be logical as the subject dwelling is a larger home of 2,355 square feet of living area as compared to the best comparables which contain either 1,977 or 1,988 square feet of living area. Accepted real estate valuation theory provides that all factors being equal, as the size of the property increases, the per unit value decreases. In contrast, as the size of a property decreases, the per unit value increases.

The constitutional provision for uniformity of taxation and valuation does not require mathematical equality. The requirement is satisfied if the intent is evident to adjust the taxation burden with a reasonable degree of uniformity and if such is the effect of the statute enacted by the General Assembly establishing the method of assessing real property in its general operation. A practical uniformity, rather than an absolute one, is the test. Apex Motor Fuel Co. v. Barrett, 20 Ill. 2d 395 (1960). Although the comparables presented by the parties disclosed that properties located in the same area are not assessed at identical levels, all that the constitution requires is a practical uniformity which appears to exist on the basis of the evidence.

Based on this record and after considering appropriate adjustments to the best comparables for differences when compared to the subject, the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
