

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Qiong Wu
DOCKET NO.: 21-40592.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 14-29-427-013-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Qiong Wu, the appellant, by attorney Abby L. Strauss, of Schiller Law P.C., in Chicago, and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $43,500
IMPR.: $113,855
TOTAL: $157,355

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2021 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a three-story dwelling of masonry exterior construction with 3,564 square feet of living area. The dwelling is approximately 133 years old. Features of the home include a concrete slab foundation, 3½ bathrooms, central air conditioning, and a two-car garage. The property has a 2,900 square foot site and is located in Chicago, Lake View Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-06 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity concerning the improvement as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted information on four equity comparables located in the same neighborhood code as the subject. The comparables consist of class 2-06 dwellings of masonry exterior construction. The dwellings range in age from 111 to 132 years old and range in size from 3,236 to 3,848 square feet of living area. Three comparables have full basements and comparable #4 has a concrete slab foundation; no data was provided concerning finished basement area, if any. The homes have 2 to 4 bathrooms. Three comparables have central air conditioning and three comparables have two fireplaces. Two comparables each have a two-car garage. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $69,341 to $91,875 or from $18.02 to $26.77 per square foot of living area.

Based on this evidence, the appellant requested a reduced improvement assessment of $83,148 or $23.33 per square foot of living area.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $157,355. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $113,855 or $31.95 per square foot of living area.

In support of its contention of the correct assessment, the board of review submitted information on four equity comparables located in the same neighborhood code as the subject and within ¼ of a mile from the subject. The comparables consist of class 2-06 two-story or three-story dwellings of frame exterior construction that range in age from 130 to 143 years old. The homes range in size from 3,112 to 3,656 square feet of living area. Each comparable has a full basement, three of which have finished area, 2 or 3 bathrooms, and three comparables each have 1 or 2 half-baths. Three of the homes have central air conditioning and three comparables have one or two fireplaces. Three comparables have two-car garages. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $110,042 to $129,125 or from $32.48 to $36.03 per square foot of living area.

Based on this evidence, the board of review requested confirmation of the subject's assessment.

In rebuttal, counsel for the appellant noted the exterior construction of the board of review comparables of frame as compared to the subject of masonry.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The parties submitted a total of eight equity comparables to support their respective positions before the Property Tax Appeal Board. The Board has given reduced weight to appellant's comparables #1 and #3 along with board of review comparable #3, due to the lack of a garage which is a feature of the subject. The Board has given reduced weight to board of review comparable #1, due to the difference in dwelling size when compared to the subject.

The Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity in the record are appellant's comparables #2 and #4 along with board of review comparables #2 and #4, which are similar to the subject in location, age, dwelling size and garage amenity. Adjustments to the comparables are necessary for differences in bathroom count to make the comparables more similar to the subject. All but one of the comparables necessitate downward adjustments for foundation type and basement finish when compared to the subject's slab foundation. In addition, downward adjustments to the comparables for fireplace amenity are also necessary. The Board finds these comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $74,975 to $129,125 or from $23.17 to $35.32 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $113,855 or $31.95 per square foot of living area is supported by the best comparables in this record both in terms of overall improvement assessment and on a per-square-foot of living area basis.

The constitutional provision for uniformity of taxation and valuation does not require mathematical equality. The requirement is satisfied if the intent is evident to adjust the taxation burden with a reasonable degree of uniformity and if such is the effect of the statute enacted by the General Assembly establishing the method of assessing real property in its general operation. A practical uniformity, rather than an absolute one, is the test. Apex Motor Fuel Co. v. Barrett, 20 Ill. 2d 395 (1960). Although the comparables presented by the parties disclosed that properties located in the same area are not assessed at identical levels, all that the constitution requires is a practical uniformity which appears to exist on the basis of the evidence.

Based on this record and after considering appropriate adjustments to the best comparables for differences when compared to the subject property, the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
