

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Mohmedzafar Patel
DOCKET NO.: 21-41468.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 10-22-428-049-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board (PTAB) are Mohmedzafar Patel, the appellant, by attorney Robert Rosenfeld, of Robert H. Rosenfeld & Associates, LLC in Northbrook; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, PTAB hereby finds No Change in the Cook County Board of Review's assessment of the property is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $4,841
IMPR.: $29,370
TOTAL: $34,211

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a Cook County Board of Review decision pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2021 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

A 2,808 square feet, multi-level masonry building on a 5,096 square feet parcel in Skokie, Niles Township, Cook County comprises the subject property. The 60-year-old, class 2-11 property contained two bathrooms, an attached two-car garage, and a full basement. The appellant indicated that the property last sold in February 2021 and that the appeal was based on evidence of assessment inequity.

Contesting the equity of the $29,370 subject improvement assessment, the appellant contends the rate should be lowered to $9.51 per improvement square foot to be on par with those of similar properties. To show nonuniformity, the appellant placed into evidence four class 2-11 properties in the subject's neighborhood with improvement assessments between $9.30 and $9.73 per living square foot. The appellant's suggested comparables featured two to three bathrooms, a full basement, and a two-car garage.¹ These potential comparators varied from 64 to 93 years in building age and from 2,976 to 3,290 square feet in improvement size.

The board of review countered that the subject improvement assessment of $29,370, or $10.46 per living square foot, was equitable in its “Notes on Appeal.” In defense of the $34,211 total subject assessment, the county board of review nominated four masonry buildings on the subject’s block as equity comparables. The board of review’s preferred comparators all featured a full or partial basement, a two-to 2.5-car garage, and two to three bathrooms. These properties were 58 or 61 years in building age; between 2,350 and 2,520 square feet in living area; and between $10.86 and $12.47 per living square foot in improvement assessment.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. The Illinois Constitution requires real estate taxes “be levied uniformly by valuation ascertained as the General Assembly shall provide by law.” Ill. Const., art. IX, § 4 (1970); Walsh v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 181 Ill. 2d 228, 234 (1998). Yet this uniformity provision of the Illinois Constitution does not require absolute equality in taxation; instead, a reasonable degree of uniformity in the taxing authority’s assessments suffices. Peacock v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 339 Ill. App. 3d 1060, 1070 (4th Dist. 2003).

When the ground for appeal is unequal treatment in the assessment, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e); Walsh, 181 Ill. 2d at 234 (1998). Clear and convincing evidence means more than a preponderance of the evidence, but it does not need to approach the degree of proof needed for a criminal conviction. Bazyldo v. Volant, 164 Ill. 2d 207, 213 (1995). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment should consist of assessment documentation for the year in question of similarly situated properties with compelling proximity to, and lack of distinguishing characteristics from, the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Property Tax Appeal Board (PTAB) finds the appellant fell short of satisfying this burden of proof.

As the properties most similar to the subject improvement, board of review comparable #1 and appellant comparables #2 and #3 constitute the best evidence of assessment equity in this record. While board of review comparable #1 lacked some of the subject’s living space, it mitigated that deficiency with a larger garage and extra bathroom. By contrast, both appellant comparables #2 and #3 contained more livable area than the subject improvement and otherwise largely matched the subject property’s attributes—except location, which is not specifically known for either comparator. Based on these comparators, the subject improvement would be equitably assessed from $9.40 to $12.47 per living square foot. Because the $10.46 per square foot assessment for the subject improvement lands within this range, PTAB concludes the appellant did not demonstrate nonuniform assessment by clear and convincing evidence and a reduction commensurate with the appellant’s request is not justified.

¹ The Property Tax Appeal Board (PTAB) notes that the appellant provided internally inconsistent information regarding the presence of air conditioning in the subject property. Given all the submissions in evidence, PTAB gives the presence of air conditioning less weight when determining the correct subject assessment.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
