

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Thomas Scheidt
DOCKET NO.: 21-41605.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 13-12-117-001-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Thomas Scheidt, the appellant, by attorney Robert Rosenfeld, of Robert H. Rosenfeld & Associates, LLC in Northbrook, and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $14,681
IMPR.: $48,318
TOTAL: $62,999

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2021 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a two-story multi-family building of masonry exterior construction with 3,885 square feet of gross building area and is approximately 80 years old. Features include a full unfinished basement and 4 full bathrooms.¹ The property has a 4,588 square foot site and is located in Chicago, Jefferson Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-11 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity concerning the improvement as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted information on four equity comparables located in the same neighborhood code as the subject. The comparables consist of class 2-11 buildings of masonry exterior construction that range in age from 68 to 93 years old. The buildings range in size from 3,842 to 5,100 square feet of gross building area. Features include full basements, 4 or 6 full bathrooms and central air conditioning. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $44,872 to $54,906 or from $10.77 to $11.88 per square foot of gross building area. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested a reduced improvement assessment of $43,900 or $11.30 per square foot of gross building area.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $62,999. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $48,318 or $12.44 per square foot of gross building area.

In support of its contention of the correct assessment, the board of review submitted information on four equity comparables located in the same neighborhood code as the subject and either in the subarea or within $\frac{1}{4}$ of a mile from the subject. The comparables consist of class 2-11 two-story multi-family buildings of masonry exterior construction that are from 64 to 71 years old. The buildings range in size from 3,730 to 3,864 square feet of gross building area. Each comparable has a full basement, two of which are finished as an apartment. The buildings have 3 or 4 full bathrooms and comparable #1 also has 2 half-baths. Two buildings have central air conditioning. Comparable #2 has two fireplaces and comparable #1 has a 2.5-car garage. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from \$47,000 to \$52,875 or from \$12.47 to \$13.95 per square foot of gross building area. Based on this evidence, the board of review requested confirmation of the subject's assessment.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The parties submitted a total of eight equity comparables to support their respective positions before the Property Tax Appeal Board. The Board has given reduced weight to the appellant's comparable #1, due to a significant difference in building size when compared to the subject. The Board has also given reduced weight to board of review comparables #1 and #4 due to basements finished as apartments as compared to the subject's unfinished basement.

The Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity on this record are appellant's comparables #2, #3 and #4 along with board of review comparables #2 and #3, which are similar to the subject in location, building size, and several features. Adjustments are necessary to each of the appellant's comparables and board of review comparable #2 for their air conditioning feature which is not an amenity of the subject. Additional adjustments to the comparables are necessary for differences in bathroom count when compared to the subject. These five best comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $44,872 to $48,200 or from $10.87 to $12.57 per square foot of gross building area. The subject's improvement assessment of $48,318 or $12.44 per square foot of gross building area falls slightly above the range established by the best comparables in this record in terms of overall improvement assessment and within the range on a per-square-foot of gross building area which the Board finds is logical given that the subject is larger than most of the best comparables.

The constitutional provision for uniformity of taxation and valuation does not require mathematical equality. The requirement is satisfied if the intent is evident to adjust the taxation burden with a reasonable degree of uniformity and if such is the effect of the statute enacted by the General Assembly establishing the method of assessing real property in its general operation. A practical uniformity, rather than an absolute one, is the test. Apex Motor Fuel Co. v. Barrett, 20 Ill. 2d 395 (1960). Although the comparables presented by the parties disclosed that properties located in the same area are not assessed at identical levels, all that the constitution requires is a practical uniformity which appears to exist on the basis of the evidence.

Based on this record and after considering appropriate adjustments to the best comparables in the record for differences when compared to the subject, the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
