

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Jonah Deutsch
DOCKET NO.: 21-41728.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 17-21-211-104-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Jonah Deutsch, the appellant, by attorney Dora Cornelio, of Schmidt Salzman & Moran, Ltd. in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $23,450
IMPR.: $58,550
TOTAL: $82,000

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2021 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a 3-story townhome of masonry exterior construction with 2,340 square feet of living area. The dwelling is approximately 31 years old. Features include a slab foundation,<sup>1</sup> central air conditioning, one fireplace, and a 1-car garage. The property has a 1,675 square foot site and is located in Chicago, South Chicago Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-95 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity with respect to the improvement as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted information on five equity comparables with the same neighborhood code as the subject property<sup>2</sup>. The comparables are improved with 3-story, class 2-95 townhomes of masonry exterior construction with each having 2,146 square feet of living area. The dwellings are either 19 or 21 years old. Each comparable has a full basement finished with an apartment, central air conditioning, and a 1-car garage. Two comparables each have one fireplace. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $40,118 to $40,622 or from $18.69 to $18.93 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested that the improvement assessment be reduced to $44,226 or $18.90 per square foot of living area.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $82,000. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $58,550 or $25.02 per square foot of living area. In support of its contention of the correct assessment, the board of review submitted information on four equity comparables with the same neighborhood code as the subject property. Three of these comparables are on the same block and/or the same street as the subject and one comparable is located within ¼ of a mile from the subject. The comparables are improved with 3-story, class 2-95 townhomes of masonry exterior construction with either 2,318 or 2,340 square feet of living area. The dwellings are each 31 years old. Each comparable has a slab foundation, central air conditioning, one fireplace, and either a 1-car or a 2-car garage. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $58,564 to $63,824 or from $25.03 to $27.53 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the board of review requested the assessment be confirmed.

Conclusion of Law

The appellant contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The parties submitted nine suggested comparables for the Board's consideration. The Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity to be the board of review comparables which are located most proximate to the subject and are identical or nearly identical to the subject in design, age, dwelling size, and many features. The most similar comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $58,564 to $63,824 or from $25.03 to $27.53 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $58,550 or $25.02 per square foot of living area falls below the range established by the best comparables in this record. The parties' remaining comparables were accorded diminished weight due to disparities from the subject in age and foundation type. Based on this record, the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

<sup>2</sup> The appellant submitted copies of property characteristic sheets from the Cook County Assessor's Office for the comparables from which descriptive information was verified, added, or corrected by the Board.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
