

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Son Dam
DOCKET NO.: 21-43062.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 20-14-216-029-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Son Dam, the appellant, by attorney Eric Feldman, of Eric Feldman & Assoc. P.C., in Chicago, and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $22,440
IMPR.: $71,727
TOTAL: $94,167

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2021 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a two-story dwelling of masonry exterior construction with 2,322 square feet of living area. The dwelling is approximately 134 years old. Features of the home include a full basement finished as a recreation room, 2½ bathrooms, central air conditioning, and a fireplace. The property has a 4,488 square foot site and is located in Chicago, Hyde Park Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-10 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal concerning the improvement assessment. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted information on five equity comparables located in the same neighborhood code as the subject and within .55 of a mile from the subject. The comparables consist of class 2-10 two-story or three-story dwellings of masonry exterior construction that range in age from 110 to 139 years old. The homes range in size from 2,124 to 2,538 square feet of living area. Each comparable has a full basement finished as a recreation room, 2 or 2½ bathrooms and one or two fireplaces. Comparable #4 has central air conditioning and a 1.5-car garage. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $41,450 to $55,250 or from $19.52 to $21.77 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested a reduced improvement assessment of $48,019 or $20.68 per square foot of living area.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $94,167. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $71,727 or $30.89 per square foot of living area.

In support of its contention of the correct assessment, the board of review submitted information on four equity comparables located in the same neighborhood code as the subject and within ¼ of a mile from the subject. The comparables consist of class 2-10 two-story dwellings of masonry exterior construction that are from 127 to 133 years old. The homes range in size from 2,056 to 2,520 square feet of living area. Each comparable has a full basement, three of which have finished recreation rooms. Each comparable has 2 to 3½ bathrooms, one comparable has central air conditioning and three comparables each have one or two fireplaces. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $72,430 to $102,650 or from $32.55 to $41.93 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the board of review requested confirmation of the subject's assessment.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The parties submitted a total of nine equity comparables to support their respective positions before the Property Tax Appeal Board. The Board has given reduced weight to appellant's comparable #4, which differs in age and has a garage, which is a superior feature that the 134 year-old subject does not have. The Board has given reduced weight to board of review comparable #3 which is smaller than the subject dwelling and lacks finished basement area which is a feature of the subject.

The Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity to be appellant's comparables #1, #2, #3 and #5 along with board of review comparables #1, #2 and #4 which are similar to the subject in location, age, exterior construction, and several features. These best comparables range in dwelling size from 2,124 to 2,520 square feet of living area which brackets the subject's dwelling size of 2,322 square feet. Adjustments for differences in age, design, dwelling size, air conditioning and/or fireplace amenity would be necessary to make the comparables more similar to the subject. These comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $41,450 to $102,650 or from $19.52 to $41.93 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $71,727 or $30.89 per square foot of living area falls within the range established by the best comparables in this record both in terms of overall improvement assessment and on a per-square-foot of living area basis.

The constitutional provision for uniformity of taxation and valuation does not require mathematical equality. The requirement is satisfied if the intent is evident to adjust the taxation burden with a reasonable degree of uniformity and if such is the effect of the statute enacted by the General Assembly establishing the method of assessing real property in its general operation. A practical uniformity, rather than an absolute one, is the test. Apex Motor Fuel Co. v. Barrett, 20 Ill. 2d 395 (1960). Although the comparables presented by the parties disclosed that properties located in the same area are not assessed at identical levels, all that the constitution requires is a practical uniformity which appears to exist on the basis of the evidence.

Based on this record and after considering appropriate adjustments for differences in dwelling size, age and other features when compared to the subject, the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
