

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Panagiota Mantis
DOCKET NO.: 21-46013.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 14-33-308-051-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board (PTAB) are Panagiota Mantis, the appellant, by attorney Spiro G. Zarkos, of Verros Berkshire, PC in Oakbrook Terrace; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, PTAB hereby finds No Change in the Cook County Board of Review's assessment of the property is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $13,300
IMPR.: $52,700
TOTAL: $66,000

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a Cook County Board of Review decision pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) contesting the assessment for the 2021 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

A 1,566 square feet, three-story masonry building perched on a 1,064 square feet lot in Chicago of North Chicago Township, Cook County constitutes the subject property. The 55-year-old, class 2-95 residence per the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance included 2.5 bathrooms, central air conditioning, and two fireplaces.

The appellant contends assessment inequity as the basis of the petition, arguing that the subject assessment must be lowered to $22.97 per improvement square foot to be equitable. To show the subject was not uniformly assessed, the appellant volunteered five class 2-95 improvements within .7 miles of the subject as assessment benchmarks. The appellant's proposed comparators featured no garage or a two-car garage, one fireplace, and 1.5 or 2.5 bathrooms. These properties were 36 to 51 years in building age; 1,386 to 1,674 in living square footage; and $20.92 to $24.06 per improvement square foot in assessment.

The county board of review maintained in its “Notes on Appeal” that the subject improvement was fairly assessed at $52,700, or $33.65 per living square foot. In defense of the $66,000 total subject assessment, the board of review nominated four three-story buildings on the subject’s block as equity comparables. The county board of review’s selections featured air conditioning, 2.5 bathrooms, and two fireplaces. These 1,566-square-foot improvements were 55 or 56 years old and $33.65 to $34.29 per improvement square foot in assessment.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. The Illinois Constitution requires that real estate taxes “be levied uniformly by valuation ascertained as the General Assembly shall provide by law.” Ill. Const., art. IX, § 4 (1970); Walsh v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 181 Ill. 2d 228, 234 (1998). This uniformity provision of the Illinois Constitution does not mandate absolute equality in taxation, however; instead, a reasonable degree of uniformity in the taxing authority’s assessments suffices. Peacock v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 339 Ill. App. 3d 1060, 1070 (4th Dist. 2003).

When a property tax appeal is based on unequal treatment in the assessment, the appellant must prove the inequity of the assessments by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e); Walsh, 181 Ill. 2d at 234 (1998). Clear and convincing evidence means more than a preponderance of the evidence, but it does not need to approach the degree of proof required for a criminal conviction. Bazyldo v. Volant, 164 Ill. 2d 207, 213 (1995). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation for the year in question of demonstrably similar properties with compelling proximity to, and a lack of distinguishing characteristics from, the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Property Tax Appeal Board (PTAB) finds the appellant did not surpass this burden of proof.

In this record, the board of review submitted four neighboring properties that were virtually identical to the subject improvement and therefore provide the best evidence of assessment equity. The board of review’s four submissions all featured the same living square footage, bathroom count, basement type, two fireplaces, and air conditioning inclusion as the subject—the only discernable difference was a one-year difference between the ages of board of review comparables #1, #2, and #4 and the subject improvement age. These nearly identical comparators indicate that the subject improvement would be equitably assessed between $33.65 and $34.29 per living square foot. Because the subject’s $33.65 per improvement square foot assessment is within this range, PTAB concludes the appellant did not demonstrate assessment inequity by clear and convincing evidence and a reduction in the assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
