

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Ignacio Marchan
DOCKET NO.: 21-46825.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 15-03-308-026-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Ignacio Marchan, the appellant, by attorney Amy C. Floyd, Attorney at Law in Chicago, and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds A Reduction in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $3,516
IMPR.: $22,848
TOTAL: $26,364

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2021 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property is improved with a one-story, multi-family dwelling of frame and masonry construction with 1,632 square feet of living area. The dwelling is 94 years old. Features include a slab foundation, a three-car garage, and three full bathrooms. The property has a 4,537 square foot site and is located in Melrose Park, Proviso Township, Cook County. The subject is a class 2-11 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance. The board of review asserts that there is a second 1,632 square foot dwelling on the property that is not mentioned in the appellant's appeal petition.

The appellant asserts assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted information on four suggested equity comparables.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject as $54,835. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $51,319 or $31.45 per square foot of living area, assuming there is only one dwelling on the property. In support of its contention of the correct assessment, the board of review submitted information on four suggested equity comparables.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer asserts assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. The Illinois Constitution requires that real estate taxes “be levied uniformly by valuation ascertained as the General Assembly shall provide by law.” Ill. Const., art. IX, § 4 (1970); Walsh v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 181 Ill. 2d 228, 234 (1998). This uniformity provision of the Illinois Constitution does not require absolute equality in taxation, however, and it is sufficient if the taxing authority achieves a reasonable degree of uniformity. Peacock v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 339 Ill. App. 3d 1060, 1070 (4th Dist. 2003).

When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill. Admin. Code §1910.63(e); Walsh, 181 Ill. 2d at 234 (1998). Clear and convincing evidence means more than a preponderance of the evidence, but it does not need to approach the degree of proof needed for a conviction of a crime. Bazyldo v. Volant, 164 Ill. 2d 207, 213 (1995). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill. Admin. Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant met this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted.

Initially, this Board must resolve whether there is a second dwelling on the subject property. The appellant submitted a photograph of the subject property that supports the statement on his appeal petition that there is one dwelling. The board of review submitted no photographic evidence in support of the statements in its Notes on Appeal and its grid that there was a second dwelling. This Board therefore finds that there is one 1,632 square-foot dwelling on the subject property.

This Board further finds that the best evidence of assessment equity is the board of review’s suggested comparables one, three, and four. Like the subject property, each of these comparables has a dwelling with a multi-car garage. The dwellings on these comparables are similar to the subject dwelling in age and living area size. These comparables are all within a quarter mile of the subject. They are superior to the appellant’s suggested comparables because of their proximity to the subject.

These comparables have improvement assessments that range from $13.65 to $14.03 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $31.45 per square foot of living area is above the range established by the best comparables in this record. The Board therefore finds that the appellant demonstrated with clear and convincing evidence that the subject was inequitably assessed, and a reduction in the subject's assessment on this basis is warranted.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
