

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Rafael Berovides
DOCKET NO.: 21-48083.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 12-23-209-034-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board (PTAB) are Rafael Berovides, the appellant, by attorney Andreas Mamalakis, of the Law Offices of Andreas Mamalakis in Kenosha; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, PTAB hereby finds No Change in the Cook County Board of Review's assessment of the property is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $7,440
IMPR.: $21,563
TOTAL: $29,003

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a Cook County Board of Review decision pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2021 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

A 1,296 square feet, one-story masonry building situated on a 3,720 square feet lot in Chicago, Jefferson Township, Cook County constitutes the subject property. The 94-year-old, class 2-03 residence per the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance contained 1.5 bathrooms, central air conditioning, a two-car garage, and a full basement.

Arguing the $21,563 assessment is inequitably high for the subject improvement, the appellant contends the assessment must be lowered to $9.36 per improvement square foot to be in line with those of similar properties. To bolster this argument, the appellant nominated five class 2-03 buildings in the subject's neighborhood as assessment benchmarks. The appellant's preferred comparators each had at least one fireplace, a one-car garage, a full or partial basement, and one to 1.5 bathrooms. Moreover, these properties were between 75 and 94 years in building age; 1,166 and 1,520 in living square footage; and $8.38 and $10.00 per improvement square foot in assessment.

The county board of review maintained in its “Notes on Appeal” that the subject improvement was fairly assessed at $21,560, or $16.64 per living square foot. In defense of the $29,003 total subject assessment, the county board of review proposed four properties within a quarter mile of the subject as equity comparables. The county board of review’s selections featured air conditioning, a full basement, and a two-car garage. These suggested comparators ranged from 80 to 95 years in building age; 1,002 to 1,392 square feet in living area; and $18.78 to $21.52 per improvement square foot in assessment.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. The Illinois Constitution requires real estate taxes “be levied uniformly by valuation ascertained as the General Assembly shall provide by law.” Ill. Const., art. IX, § 4 (1970); Walsh v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 181 Ill. 2d 228, 234 (1998). This uniformity provision of the Illinois Constitution does not require absolute equality in taxation, however; instead, a reasonable degree of uniformity in the taxing authority’s assessments suffices. Peacock v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 339 Ill. App. 3d 1060, 1070 (4th Dist. 2003).

When a property tax appeal is based on unequal treatment in the assessment, the appellant must prove the inequity of the assessments by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e); Walsh, 181 Ill. 2d at 234 (1998). Clear and convincing evidence means more than a preponderance of the evidence, but it does not need to approach the degree of proof needed for a criminal conviction. Bazyldo v. Volant, 164 Ill. 2d 207, 213 (1995). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation for the year in question of not fewer than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity, and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Property Tax Appeal Board (PTAB) finds the appellant did not surpass this burden of proof.

In this record, board of review comparables #1 and #2 appellant comparables #3 and #4 compare most favorably to the subject improvement and therefore circumscribe the range of equitable assessments for the subject. Board of review comparable #2 lacked some of the subject’s livable area but compensated for the disparity with a newer building. Conversely, because board of review comparable #2 was superior to the subject improvement in that it contained more living area; an extra full bathroom; and a fireplace, it occupies the top end of the equitable range. Meanwhile, both appellant comparables #3 and #4 featured more living space than the subject, which partially offset their deficiencies in bathroom capacity, basement size, or air conditioning presence. Given these properties, PTAB finds the range of equitable assessments for the subject runs from $9.58 to $21.52 per improvement square foot. As such, because the subject’s $16.64 per improvement square foot assessment falls within this range, PTAB concludes the appellant did not demonstrate assessment inequity by clear and convincing evidence and a reduction in the assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
