

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Marian Ping
DOCKET NO.: 21-48129.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 13-35-211-005-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board (PTAB) are Marian Ping, the appellant, by attorney Andreas Mamalakis, of the Law Offices of Andreas Mamalakis in Kenosha; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, PTAB hereby finds No Change in the Cook County Board of Review's assessment of the property is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $11,908
IMPR.: $33,682
TOTAL: $45,590

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a Cook County Board of Review decision pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2021 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a 1,272 square feet frame structure on a 3,968 square feet lot in Chicago, Jefferson Township, Cook County. The 129-year-old dwelling, a class 2-03 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance, contained 1.5 bathrooms, a full basement, and a two-car garage.

Contesting the $33,682 subject improvement assessment, the appellant bases the petition on assessment equity and requests the assessment rate be reduced to $9.13 per improvement square foot. To show that the subject assessment is not on par with those of similar properties, the appellant offered five class 2-03 properties within one mile of the subject as assessment benchmarks. These suggested comparators each had at least one fireplace, a one- or two-car garage, and one or 1.5 bathrooms. The appellant's selections also ranged between 117 and 130 years in building age; 1,095 and 1,450 in living square footage; and $8.16 and $9.50 per improvement square foot in assessment.

The county board of review responded that the subject improvement was fairly assessed at $33,683, or $26.48 per living square foot in its “Notes on Appeal.” In defense of the $45,590 total subject assessment, the board of review supplied information about four buildings within a quarter mile of the subject with improvement assessments from $28.53 to $43.72 per square foot. The board of review’s preferred comparables all featured one or 1.5 bathrooms, no fireplace, a one- or two-car garage, and a full basement or slab foundation. These improvements ranged from 113 to 128 years old and 1,020 to 1,155 square feet in improvement area.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. The Illinois Constitution requires that real estate taxes “be levied uniformly by valuation ascertained as the General Assembly shall provide by law.” Ill. Const., art. IX, § 4 (1970); Walsh v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 181 Ill. 2d 228, 234 (1998). This uniformity provision of the Illinois Constitution does not require absolute equality in taxation, however; instead, a reasonable degree of uniformity in the taxing authority’s assessments suffices. Peacock v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 339 Ill. App. 3d 1060, 1070 (4th Dist. 2003).

When a property tax appeal is based on unequal treatment in the assessment, the appellant must prove the inequity of the assessments by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e); Walsh, 181 Ill. 2d at 234 (1998). Clear and convincing evidence means more than a preponderance of the evidence, but it does not need to approach the degree of proof needed for a criminal conviction. Bazyldo v. Volant, 164 Ill. 2d 207, 213 (1995). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation for the year in question of not fewer than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity, and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Property Tax Appeal Board (PTAB) finds the appellant did not satisfy this burden of proof.

In this record, board of review comparable #1 and appellant comparables #3 and #5 most resemble the subject improvement and therefore provide the best evidence of assessment equity. Board of review comparable #1 mirrored the subject improvement’s age, bathroom count, basement type, and garage size. Meanwhile, as an older property with less living area, garage space, bathroom functionality, and no basement relative to the subject, appellant comparable #3 anchors the low end of the equitable assessment range. Similarly, by virtue of its smaller livable area, one fewer half bathroom, and smaller garage, which it mitigated with a couple of fireplaces, appellant comparable #5 also occupies the low end of the range of equitable assessments, which runs from $9.48 to $43.72 per living square foot. Even accounting for outliers, because the $26.48 per improvement square foot subject assessment fits inside a reasonably equitable range, PTAB finds the appellant did not show by clear and convincing evidence that an equitable reduction in the subject assessment is justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
