

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Martin Arroyo
DOCKET NO.: 21-48424.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 13-29-213-024-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board (PTAB) are Martin Arroyo, the appellant, by attorney Andreas Mamalakis, of the Law Offices of Andreas Mamalakis in Kenosha; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, PTAB hereby finds No Change in the Cook County Board of Review's assessment of the property is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $9,300
IMPR.: $20,107
TOTAL: $29,407

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a Cook County Board of Review decision pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2021 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

A 1,505 square feet, multi-level building of masonry construction situated on a 3,720 square feet parcel in Chicago, Jefferson Township, Cook County comprises the subject property. The 96-year-old, class 2-03 property featured one bathroom, a two-car garage, and a full basement.

Contesting the equity of the $20,107 subject improvement assessment, the appellant contends the rate should be lowered to $9.33 per improvement square foot to remain on par with those of similar properties. To this end, the appellant placed into evidence five class 2-03 properties within .79 miles of the subject with improvement assessments between $7.47 and $10.16 per living square foot. The appellant's suggested comparables featured at least one fireplace, one to two bathrooms, and a full or crawl-space basement. These potential comparators varied from 82 to 99 years in building age and from 1,250 to 1,733 square feet in improvement size.

The county board of review countered that the subject improvement assessment of $20,107, or $13.36 per living square foot, was equitable in its “Notes on Appeal.” In defense of the $29,407 total subject assessment, the board of review nominated four buildings as assessment benchmarks. The board of review’s preferred comparators all featured a full basement, a two-car garage, and one to two bathrooms. These properties were also between 82 and 111 years in building age; between 1,128 and 1,600 square feet in living area; and between $14.84 and $16.28 per living square foot in improvement assessment.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. The Illinois Constitution requires real estate taxes “be levied uniformly by valuation ascertained as the General Assembly shall provide by law.” Ill. Const., art. IX, § 4 (1970); Walsh v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 181 Ill. 2d 228, 234 (1998). Yet this uniformity provision of the Illinois Constitution does not require absolute equality in taxation; instead, a reasonable degree of uniformity in the taxing authority’s assessments suffices. Peacock v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 339 Ill. App. 3d 1060, 1070 (4th Dist. 2003).

When the ground for appeal is unequal treatment in the assessment, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e); Walsh, 181 Ill. 2d at 234 (1998). Clear and convincing evidence means more than a preponderance of the evidence, but it does not need to approach the degree of proof needed for a criminal conviction. Bazyldo v. Volant, 164 Ill. 2d 207, 213 (1995). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment should consist of assessment documentation for the year in question of at least three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity, and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Property Tax Appeal Board (PTAB) finds the appellant fell short of satisfying this burden of proof.

As the properties most similar to the subject improvement, board of review comparables #1 and #3 and appellant comparable #1 constitute the best evidence of assessment equity in this record. Board of review comparable #1 occupies the high end of the assessment range because it featured air conditioning and more living area relative to the subject. Similarly, board of review comparable #3 had air conditioning when the subject had none, which, along with the comparable’s extra half bathroom, mitigated its smaller livable area. Appellant comparable #1, on the other hand, offset its smaller improvement and basement with two fireplaces and air conditioning. Based on these comparators, the subject improvement would be equitably assessed from $7.47 to $15.44 per living square foot. Because the $13.36 per square foot assessment for the subject improvement lands within this range, PTAB concludes the appellant did not demonstrate nonuniform assessment by clear and convincing evidence and a reduction commensurate with the appellant’s request is not merited.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
