

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Win Fan
DOCKET NO.: 21-48604.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 17-29-312-029-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board (PTAB) are Win Fan, the appellant, by attorney Andreas Mamalakis, of the Law Offices of Andreas Mamalakis in Kenosha; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, PTAB hereby finds No Change in the Cook County Board of Review's assessment of the property is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $10,000
IMPR.: $19,108
TOTAL: $29,108

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a Cook County Board of Review decision pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) contesting the assessment for the 2021 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

A 1,240 square feet, one-story masonry building on a 2,500 square feet parcel in Chicago of South Chicago Township, Cook County comprises the subject property. The 134-year-old residence, a class 2-03 dwelling under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance, featured 2.5 bathrooms, two fireplaces, and a full basement. The subject last sold in January 2014 for $341,000.

The appellant pleads assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal, arguing that the subject improvement assessment should be reduced to $7.23 per living square foot. As evidence of subject assessment nonuniformity, the appellant presented five class 2-03 properties within .45 miles of the subject. These suggested comparables included one or 1.5 bathrooms, a full basement, and two fireplaces. The appellant's selections were 135 or 150 years in building age; from 1,100 to 1,200 square feet in improvement area; and from $6.76 to $7.84 per living square foot in improvement assessment.

The board of review countered that the subject improvement assessment of $19,108, or $15.41 per living square foot, was equitable in its “Notes on Appeal.” In defense of the $29,108 total subject assessment, the county board of review proposed four one-story buildings within a quarter mile of the subject as assessment comparables. The county board of review’s preferred comparators included one to two bathrooms, a full or partial basement, and a two-car garage. These properties were between 53 and 133 years in building age; 1,008 and 1,260 in living square footage; and $16.13 and $26.43 per square foot in improvement assessment.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. The Illinois Constitution requires real estate taxes “be levied uniformly by valuation ascertained as the General Assembly shall provide by law.” Ill. Const., art. IX, § 4 (1970); Walsh v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 181 Ill. 2d 228, 234 (1998). Yet this uniformity provision of the Illinois Constitution does not require absolute equality in taxation; instead, a reasonable degree of uniformity in the taxing authority’s assessments suffices. Peacock v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 339 Ill. App. 3d 1060, 1070 (4th Dist. 2003).

When unequal treatment in the assessment is the basis of a property tax appeal, the appellant must prove the inequity of the assessments by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e); Walsh, 181 Ill. 2d at 234 (1998). Clear and convincing evidence means more than a preponderance of the evidence, but it does not need to approach the degree of proof needed for a criminal conviction. Bazyldo v. Volant, 164 Ill. 2d 207, 213 (1995). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should comprise assessment documentation for the year in question of similarly situated properties with compelling proximity to, and a lack of distinguishing characteristics from, the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Property Tax Appeal Board (PTAB) finds the appellant did not surmount this burden of proof.

In this record, board of review comparable #1 and appellant comparables #4 and #5 most resembled the subject property and therefore provide the best evidence of equitable assessments for the subject improvement. As the only board of review comparator within 71 years of the subject improvement’s construction, comparable #1 included more living area than the subject to atone for its lack of the subject’s half bathroom and inferior basement. Meanwhile, appellant comparables #4 and #5 contained less living space, one fewer bathroom, and no garage relative to the subject, placing them at the bottom of the equitable range of improvement assessments of $7.42 to $26.43 per living square foot. Because the subject’s $15.41 per improvement square foot assessment is in the comparators’ range, PTAB finds the appellant did not provide sufficiently clear and convincing evidence that the subject assessment was inequitable or that a reduction thereof is justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
