

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Adetutu Rasaq
DOCKET NO.: 21-48809.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 31-36-409-009-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Adetutu Rasaq, the appellant, by attorney Andreas Mamalakis of the Law Offices of Andreas Mamalakis in Kenosha; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds no change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $2,432
IMPR.: $6,900
TOTAL: $9,332

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2021 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a two-story dwelling of frame and masonry exterior construction with 1,962 square feet of living area. The dwelling is approximately 69 years old. The home features a concrete slab foundation, two fireplaces¹ and a two-car garage. The property has a 7,486 square foot site and is located in Park Forest, Rich Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-05 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity with respect to the improvement as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument the appellant submitted information on five equity comparables that have the same assessment neighborhood code as the subject property. The comparables are class 2-05 properties that are improved with two-story dwellings of frame and masonry exterior construction ranging in size from 1,613 to 2,016 square feet of living area. The dwellings are from 65 to 70 years old. Each comparable has a concrete slab foundation, one or two fireplaces and either a 1-car, a 1.5-car, a 2-car or a 2.5-car garage. Four comparables each have central air conditioning. The comparables have improvement assessments that range from $4,080 to $5,860 or from $2.03 to $3.01 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested the subject's improvement assessment be reduced to $5,258 or $2.68 per square foot of living area.

¹ The appellant disclosed the subject has two fireplaces, which were not reported by the board of review and thus are likely not being assessed.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $9,332. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $6,900 or $3.52 per square foot of living area.

In support of its contention of the correct assessment the board of review submitted information on three comparables that have the same assessment neighborhood code as the subject property. The comparables are class 2-05 properties that are improved with two-story dwellings of frame and masonry exterior construction ranging in size from 1,649 to 2,078 square feet of living area. The dwellings are each 69 years old. Each comparable has a concrete slab foundation. Comparable #1 has central air conditioning. Two comparables each have a fireplace and either a 1-car or a 2-car garage. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $6,565 to $7,613 or from $3.66 to $4.16 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the board of review requested confirmation of the subject's assessment.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The parties submitted eight comparable properties for the Board's consideration. The Board has given less weight to the appellant's comparables #1, #2, #3 and #5, as well as board of review comparables #1 and #3 which have smaller dwelling sizes, when compared to the subject and/or central air conditioning, unlike the subject.

The Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity to be the appellant's comparable #4 and board of review comparable #2, which are overall most similar to the subject in location, dwelling size, design, age and some features. The comparables have improvement assessments of $5,594 and $7,613 or $2.96 and $3.66 per square foot of living area, respectively. The subject's improvement assessment of $6,900 or $3.52 per square foot of living area is bracketed by the two best comparables in the record. Based on this record and after considering adjustments to the best comparables for differences from the subject, the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
