

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Domitilo Hernandez
DOCKET NO.: 21-48886.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 13-26-122-054-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board (PTAB) are Domitilo Hernandez, the appellant, by attorney Andreas Mamalakis, of the Law Offices of Andreas Mamalakis in Kenosha; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, PTAB hereby finds No Change in the Cook County Board of Review's assessment of the property is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $15,750
IMPR.: $21,254
TOTAL: $37,004

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a Cook County Board of Review decision pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) contesting the assessment for the 2021 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

A 1,998 square feet, two-story frame structure on a 4,500 square feet lot in Chicago of Jefferson Township, Cook County constitutes the subject property. The 130-year-old, class 2-11 residence per the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance included two bathrooms, a two-car garage and a slab foundation. The subject last sold in November 1997 for $159,000.

The appellant contends assessment inequity as the basis of the petition, arguing that the subject improvement assessment must be lowered to $6.68 per improvement square foot to be equitable. To show the subject was not uniformly assessed, the appellant volunteered five class 2-11 improvements within .36 miles of the subject as assessment benchmarks. The appellant's proposed comparators featured a full basement, two fireplaces, and 2.5 to three bathrooms. These properties were 110 or 125 years in building age; 1,920 to 2,333 in living square footage; and $6.06 to $7.17 per improvement square foot in assessment.

The county board of review maintained in its “Notes on Appeal” that the subject improvement was fairly assessed at $21,250, or $10.64 per living square foot. In defense of the $37,004 total subject assessment, the board of review nominated four two-story improvements within a quarter mile of the subject as equity comparables. The county board of review’s selections featured no garage to a two-car garage, two to three bathrooms, and a full or crawl-space basement. These suggested comparators were 111 to 118 years old; 1,836 to 2,196 square feet in living area; and $11.49 to $14.95 per improvement square foot in assessment.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. The Illinois Constitution requires that real estate taxes “be levied uniformly by valuation ascertained as the General Assembly shall provide by law.” Ill. Const., art. IX, § 4 (1970); Walsh v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 181 Ill. 2d 228, 234 (1998). This uniformity provision of the Illinois Constitution does not require absolute equality in taxation, however; instead, a reasonable degree of uniformity in the taxing authority’s assessments suffices. Peacock v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 339 Ill. App. 3d 1060, 1070 (4th Dist. 2003).

When a property tax appeal is based on unequal treatment in the assessment, the appellant must prove the inequity of the assessments by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e); Walsh, 181 Ill. 2d at 234 (1998). Clear and convincing evidence means more than a preponderance of the evidence, but it does not need to approach the degree of proof needed for a criminal conviction. Bazyldo v. Volant, 164 Ill. 2d 207, 213 (1995). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation for the year in question of demonstrably similar properties with compelling proximity to, and a lack of distinguishing characteristics from, the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Property Tax Appeal Board (PTAB) finds the appellant did not surpass this burden of proof.

As the properties most similar to the subject improvement, board of review comparable #2 and appellant comparables #4 and #5 provide the best evidence of subject assessment equity. Board of review #2 occupies the top of the equitable range because it was marginally larger than the subject improvement and featured one extra full bathroom. By contrast, appellant comparables #4 and #5 both had less living and garage space than the subject, though they offset the deficiency with two fireplaces, a better basement, and an extra full bathroom. Given these properties, PTAB finds an equitable assessment for the subject should be between $7.17 and $13.15 per improvement square foot. Because the subject’s $10.64 per improvement square foot assessment does land in this range, PTAB concludes the appellant did not demonstrate assessment inequity by clear and convincing evidence and a reduction in the assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
