

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Don Glisovich
DOCKET NO.: 21-50380.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 17-04-404-016-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Don Glisovich, the appellant, by attorney Abby L. Strauss, of Schiller Law P.C., in Chicago, and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $66,250
IMPR.: $119,711
TOTAL: $185,961

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2021 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a three-story multi-family building of masonry exterior construction with 5,192 square feet of gross building area and which is approximately 126 years old. Features include a partial basement finished as an apartment, and 4½ bathrooms. The property has a 2,650 square foot site and is located in Chicago, North Chicago Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-11 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity concerning the improvement as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted information on five equity comparables located in the same neighborhood code as the subject. The comparables consist of class 2-11 buildings of masonry or frame and masonry exterior construction that are 112 to 144 years old. The buildings range in size from 4,599 to 5,109 square feet of gross building area.

Features include 4 bathrooms. Four buildings have full or partial basements with no information on finished area, if any, and comparable #5 has a concrete slab foundation. Comparable #3 has central air conditioning and three comparables have two or four fireplaces. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $78,991 to $94,750 or from $15.46 to $20.16 per square foot of gross building area. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested a reduced improvement assessment of $95,066 or $18.31 per square foot of gross building area.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $185,961. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $119,711 or $23.06 per square foot of gross building area.

In support of its contention of the correct assessment, the board of review submitted information on four equity comparables which are located in the same neighborhood code and either the subarea or within ¼ of a mile from the subject. The comparables consist of class 2-11 three-story buildings of masonry exterior construction that are either 133 or 140 years old. The buildings range in size from 4,632 to 4,756 square feet of gross building area. Each comparable has a full basement, one of which has an apartment. The comparables have 3 to 5 bathrooms, and comparable #4 has central air conditioning along with three fireplaces. Three comparables have either a two-car or a three-car garage. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $119,000 to $124,000 or from $25.52 to $26.13 per square foot of gross building area. Based on this evidence, the board of review requested confirmation of the subject's assessment.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The parties submitted a total of nine equity comparables to support their respective positions before the Property Tax Appeal Board. The Board has given reduced weight to appellant's comparable #2 as well as board of review comparable #1, due to ages of 144 and 140 years old, respectively, when compared to the 126-year-old subject when there are other comparables in the record more similar in age to the subject. The Board has given reduced weight to appellant's comparable #5 due to its slab foundation as compared to the subject's partial basement finished as an apartment and to appellant's comparable #3 as well as board of review comparable #4, due to the amenity of air conditioning, which is not a feature of the subject.

The Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity are appellant's comparables #1 and #4 as well as board of review comparables #2 and #3, which are relatively similar to the subject in location, exterior construction, and foundation type. Adjustments are necessary for slight differences in age when compared to the subject in order to make the comparables more similar to the subject. In addition, upward adjustments to account for finished basement area appear necessary to board of review comparables #2 and #3 while the basement finish of the appellant's comparables #1 and #4 are unknown when compared to the subject's basement apartment. A downward adjustment to board of review comparable #2 for a garage amenity appears necessary given that the subject has no garage feature. The best comparables in the record have improvement assessments ranging from $78,991 to $120,978 or from $15.46 to $26.00 per square foot of gross building area. The subject's improvement assessment of $119,711 or $23.06 per square foot of gross building area falls within the range of the best comparables in this record both in terms of overall improvement assessment and on a per-square-foot of gross building area basis which appears to be logical given the necessary adjustments to the comparables to make them more equivalent to the subject property.

The constitutional provision for uniformity of taxation and valuation does not require mathematical equality. The requirement is satisfied if the intent is evident to adjust the taxation burden with a reasonable degree of uniformity and if such is the effect of the statute enacted by the General Assembly establishing the method of assessing real property in its general operation. A practical uniformity, rather than an absolute one, is the test. Apex Motor Fuel Co. v. Barrett, 20 Ill. 2d 395 (1960). Although the comparables presented by the parties disclosed that properties located in the same area are not assessed at identical levels, all that the constitution requires is a practical uniformity which appears to exist on the basis of the evidence.

Based on this record and after considering appropriate adjustments to the best comparables in the record for differences when compared to the subject, the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
