

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Kenmore, LLC
DOCKET NO.: 21-50490.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 14-32-207-033-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Kenmore, LLC, the appellant, by attorney Abby L. Strauss, of Schiller Law P.C., in Chicago, and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $37,200
IMPR.: $93,800
TOTAL: $131,000

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2021 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a three-story multi-family building of masonry exterior construction with 5,034 square feet of gross building area and which is approximately 118 years old. Features include a full unfinished basement, 3 bathrooms, and central air conditioning. The property has a 2,976 square foot site and is located in Chicago, North Chicago Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-11 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity concerning the improvement as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted information on seven equity comparables located in the same neighborhood code as the subject. The comparables consist of class 2-11 buildings of masonry exterior construction that are 118 to 148 years old. The buildings range in size from 4,928 to 5,378 square feet of gross building area. Features include 3 to 6 bathrooms. Six buildings have full basements with no information on finished area, if any, and comparables #6 has a concrete slab foundation. Comparable #6 has central air conditioning and a fireplace. Comparable #5 has a 2.5-car garage. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $78,087 to $94,500 or from $15.01 to $18.29 per square foot of gross building area. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested a reduced improvement assessment of $82,105 or $16.31 per square foot of gross building area.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $131,000. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $93,800 or $18.63 per square foot of gross building area.

In support of its contention of the correct assessment, the board of review submitted information on four equity comparables which are located in the same neighborhood code and comparable #1 is $\frac{1}{4}$ of a mile from the subject. The comparables consist of class 2-11 three-story buildings of masonry exterior construction that are 114 to 133 years old. The buildings range in size from 4,404 to 5,131 square feet of gross building area. Three comparables have full unfinished basements and comparable #4 has a concrete slab foundation. The comparables have 3 or 4 bathrooms, and comparable #1 has 3 half-baths. Two comparables have either a two-car or a three-car garage. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from \$85,175 to \$101,933 or from \$19.34 to \$19.87 per square foot of gross building area. Based on this evidence, the board of review requested confirmation of the subject's assessment.

In rebuttal, the appellant noted the dwelling size of board of review comparable #4 in comparison to the subject dwelling.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The parties submitted a total of eleven equity comparables to support their respective positions before the Property Tax Appeal Board. The Board has given reduced weight to appellant's comparable #6 as well as the board of review comparable #4, due to differences in foundation type of slab as compared to the subject's full basement. The Board has given reduced weight to appellant's comparable #5 and board of review comparables #1 and #3, due to garage amenities, whereas the subject does not have a garage.

The Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity are appellant's comparables #1 through #4 and #7 along with board of review comparable #2, which are relatively similar to the subject in location, design, exterior construction, building size, and foundation type. Upward adjustments are necessary to each of these comparables for lack of air conditioning when compared to the subject building. Adjustments for differences in age and/or bathroom count are also necessary to make each of the comparables more similar to the subject. The best comparables in the record have improvement assessments ranging from $78,087 to $98,500 or from $15.01 to $19.54 per square foot of gross building area. The subject's improvement assessment of $93,800 or $18.63 per square foot of gross building area falls within the range of the best comparables in this record both in terms of overall improvement assessment and on a per-square-foot of gross building area basis. Furthermore, given the similarities in age, bathroom count and other features, but for an upward adjustment for lack of air conditioning and slight adjustment for size differences, the Board finds the subject's assessment is well-supported by appellant's comparable #7.

The constitutional provision for uniformity of taxation and valuation does not require mathematical equality. The requirement is satisfied if the intent is evident to adjust the taxation burden with a reasonable degree of uniformity and if such is the effect of the statute enacted by the General Assembly establishing the method of assessing real property in its general operation. A practical uniformity, rather than an absolute one, is the test. Apex Motor Fuel Co. v. Barrett, 20 Ill. 2d 395 (1960). Although the comparables presented by the parties disclosed that properties located in the same area are not assessed at identical levels, all that the constitution requires is a practical uniformity which appears to exist on the basis of the evidence.

Based on this record and after considering appropriate adjustments to the best comparables in the record for differences when compared to the subject, the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
