

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Joe Arnold
DOCKET NO.: 21-50552.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 14-33-423-029-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Joe Arnold, the appellant, by attorney Abby L. Strauss, of Schiller Law P.C., in Chicago, and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $32,825
IMPR.: $85,175
TOTAL: $118,000

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2021 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a three-story multi-family building of masonry exterior construction with 4,404 square feet of gross building area and which is approximately 133 years old. Features include a concrete slab foundation and 4 bathrooms.¹ The property has a 2,626 square foot site and is located in Chicago, North Chicago Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-11 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity concerning the improvement as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted information on seven equity comparables located in the same neighborhood code as the subject. The comparables consist of class 2-11 buildings of masonry exterior construction that are 112 to 154 years old. The buildings range in size from 4,347 to 4,928 square feet of gross building area. Features include 3 or 4 bathrooms. Six buildings have full basements with no information on finished area, if any, and comparable #5 has a concrete slab foundation. Comparables #5 and #6 have central air conditioning and two comparables have one and two fireplaces, respectively. Comparable #3 has a two-car garage. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $69,538 to $86,500 or from $16.00 to $17.71 per square foot of gross building area. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested a reduced improvement assessment of $74,119 or $16.83 per square foot of gross building area.

The board of review submitted its “Board of Review Notes on Appeal” disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $118,000. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $85,175 or $19.34 per square foot of gross building area.

In support of its contention of the correct assessment, the board of review submitted information on four equity comparables which are located in the same neighborhood code as the subject and in the subarea or within ¼ of a mile from the subject. The comparables consist of class 2-11 three-story buildings of masonry exterior construction ranging in age from 111 to 133 years old. The buildings range in size from 4,397 to 4,539 square feet of gross building area. Each comparable has a full or partial basement, one of which is finished as an apartment, 4 to 6 full bathrooms, and comparable #3 also has 2 half-baths. Two comparables each have a 1.5-car and a 3.5-car garage. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $87,602 to $97,937 or from $19.30 to $22.27 per square foot of gross building area. Based on this evidence, the board of review requested confirmation of the subject’s assessment.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The parties submitted a total of eleven equity comparables to support their respective positions before the Property Tax Appeal Board which present varying degrees of similarity to the subject property. The Board has given reduced weight to appellant’s comparables #2, #4, #5 and #6 along with board of review comparable #2, due to differing ages of more than 20 years when compared to the subject dwelling. Less weight has been given to appellant’s comparable #5 due to its larger building size when compared to the subject.

The Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity are appellant’s comparables #1, #3, and #7 along with board of review comparables #1, #3 and #4, which are similar to the subject in location, age, design, exterior construction, and building size. Downward adjustments are necessary to each of these best comparables for basement area and/or finished basement area when compared to the subject concrete slab foundation. Adjustments for differences in age and/or bathroom count are also necessary to make each of the comparables more similar to the subject. Three comparables necessitate adjustments for garage amenity when compared to the subject with no garage. The best comparables in the record have improvement assessments ranging from $69,538 to $97,937 or from $16.00 to $22.27 per square foot of gross building area. The subject's improvement assessment of $85,175 or $19.34 per square foot of gross building area falls within the range of the best comparables in this record both in terms of overall improvement assessment and on a per-square-foot of gross building area basis.

The constitutional provision for uniformity of taxation and valuation does not require mathematical equality. The requirement is satisfied if the intent is evident to adjust the taxation burden with a reasonable degree of uniformity and if such is the effect of the statute enacted by the General Assembly establishing the method of assessing real property in its general operation. A practical uniformity, rather than an absolute one, is the test. Apex Motor Fuel Co. v. Barrett, 20 Ill. 2d 395 (1960). Although the comparables presented by the parties disclosed that properties located in the same area are not assessed at identical levels, all that the constitution requires is a practical uniformity which appears to exist on the basis of the evidence.

Based on this record and after considering appropriate adjustments to the best comparables in the record for differences when compared to the subject, the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
