

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: John Mikulich
DOCKET NO.: 21-53094.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 18-05-119-009-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are John Mikulich, the appellant, by attorney Andreas Mamalakis, of the Law Offices of Andreas Mamalakis in Kenosha; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $5,633
IMPR.: $51,031
TOTAL: $56,664

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2021 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a 2-story dwelling of frame and masonry exterior construction with 2,263 square feet of living area. The dwelling is approximately 90 years old. Features of the home include a basement, central air conditioning, a fireplace and a 2-car garage. The property has a 6,438 square foot site and is located in Western Springs, Lyons Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-06 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity regarding the subject's improvement assessment as the bases of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted information on five equity comparables located within the same assessment neighborhood as the subject. The comparables are improved with class 2-06, 2-story dwellings of frame and masonry exterior construction ranging in size from 2,496 to 2,682 square feet of living area. The dwellings are 74 to 92 years old. The comparables have basements, a fireplace and either a 1-car, a 2-car or a 2.5-car garage. Four comparables each have central air conditioning. The comparables have improvement assessments that range from $42,283 to $50,643 or from $16.94 to $18.89 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested that the subject's improvement assessment be reduced.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $56,664. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $51,031 or $22.55 per square foot of living area.

In support of its contention of the correct assessment, the board of review submitted information on four equity comparables located within the same assessment neighborhood as the subject. The comparables are improved with class 2-06, 2-story dwellings of frame, masonry or frame and masonry exterior construction ranging in size from 2,294 to 2,398 square feet of living area. The dwellings are 79 to 96 years old. One comparable has a slab foundation, and three comparables each have a basement. Each comparable has 1 or 2 fireplaces and either a 1-car or a 2-car garage. Three comparables each have central air conditioning. The comparables have improvement assessments that range from $52,602 to $58,059 or from $22.93 to $24.21 per square foot of living area. The board of review provided a notation "The Board's comps are all within ¼ mile radius, 15sqft and 10 years of age. All of the attorney's comps are larger with 4/5 being over 2,600sqft." Based on this evidence, the board of review requested that the assessment be confirmed.

Conclusion of Law

The appellant contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The parties submitted a total of nine suggested comparables for the Board's consideration. The Board gives less weight to the appellant's comparables and the board of review comparable #1 due to significant differences in their age, dwelling size, foundation type and/or lack of central air conditioning when compared to the subject.

The Board finds the best comparables to be the board of review comparables #2, #3 and #4 which are overall most similar to the subject in location, age, dwelling size, foundation type and most features. These three comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $53,799 to $58,059 or from $23.08 to $24.21 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $51,031 or $22.55 per square foot of living area falls below the range established by the best comparables in the record. After considering adjustments to the best comparables for differences from the subject, the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
