

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Steve O'Malley
DOCKET NO.: 21-54869.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 13-16-124-008-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board (PTAB) are Steve O'Malley, the appellant, by attorney Peter D. Verros, of Verros Berkshire, PC in Oakbrook Terrace; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, PTAB hereby finds No Change in the Cook County Board of Review's assessment of the property is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $10,500
IMPR.: $39,186
TOTAL: $49,686

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a Cook County Board of Review decision pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) contesting the assessment for the 2021 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

A 3,555 square feet, three-story masonry building on a 3,750 square feet parcel in Chicago, Jefferson Township, Cook County comprises the subject property. The 96-year-old, class 2-11 residence per the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance featured three bathrooms, no air conditioning, a three-car garage, and a full basement.

The appellant pleads assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal, arguing that the subject improvement assessment must be reduced to $9.42 per living square foot. As evidence of subject assessment nonuniformity, the appellant presented four class 2-11 properties within one mile of the subject. These suggested comparables included three bathrooms, a full basement or a slab foundation, no air conditioning, and no garage or a two-car garage. The appellant's improvements also spanned 45 to 101 years in building age; 3,510 to 3,760 square feet in area; and $8.93 to $9.80 per living square foot in assessment.

The board of review countered that the subject improvement assessment of $39,186, or $11.02 per living square foot, was equitable in its “Notes on Appeal.” In defense of the $49,686 total subject assessment, the county board of review proposed four masonry improvements within a quarter mile of the subject as assessment comparables. The county board of review’s preferred comparators included three or four bathrooms, a full basement, no air conditioning, and a two- or 2.5-car garage. These properties were 96 or 97 years in building age; 3,414 to 3,765 in living square footage; and $11.02 to $11.11 per square foot in improvement assessment.

Prior to hearing before the Property Tax Appeal Board, the parties agreed to waive hearing and have the appeal decided based on the written submissions.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. The Illinois Constitution requires real estate taxes “be levied uniformly by valuation ascertained as the General Assembly shall provide by law.” Ill. Const., art. IX, § 4 (1970); Walsh v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 181 Ill. 2d 228, 234 (1998). Yet this uniformity provision of the Illinois Constitution does not mandate absolute equality in taxation; instead, a reasonable degree of uniformity in the taxing authority’s assessments suffices. Peacock v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 339 Ill. App. 3d 1060, 1070 (4th Dist. 2003).

When unequal treatment in the assessment is the basis of a property tax appeal, appellants must prove the inequity of the assessments by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e); Walsh, 181 Ill. 2d at 234 (1998). Clear and convincing evidence means more than a preponderance of the evidence, but it does not need to approach the degree of proof required for a criminal conviction. Bazyldo v. Volant, 164 Ill. 2d 207, 213 (1995). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should comprise assessment documentation for the year in question of similarly situated properties with compelling proximity to, and a lack of distinguishing characteristics from, the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Property Tax Appeal Board (PTAB) finds the appellant did not surmount this burden of proof.

In this record, board of review comparables #2 and #4 and appellant comparable #1 most resembled the subject property and therefore circumscribe the range of equitable assessments for the subject improvement. Both board of review comparables exactly matched the subject improvement in size, though both lacked some of the subject’s garage space. Meanwhile, appellant comparable #1 featured more living square footage and a newer improvement than the subject, which partially offset the comparator’s inferior basement type and lack of a garage. Given these comparators, the subject improvement would be equitably assessed from $8.93 to $11.11 per living square foot. Because the subject’s $11.02 per improvement square foot assessment lands within the comparators’ range, PTAB finds the appellant did not provide sufficiently clear and convincing evidence that the subject assessment was inequitable or that a reduction thereof is justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
