

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Robert Loos
DOCKET NO.: 21-56864.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 13-26-412-012-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board (PTAB) are Robert Loos, the appellant, by attorney Joel R. Monarch, Attorney at Law in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, PTAB hereby finds No Change in the Cook County Board of Review's assessment of the property is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $13,706
IMPR.: $31,297
TOTAL: $45,003

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a Cook County Board of Review decision pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2021 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

A 792 square feet, one-story frame structure on a 3,915 square feet lot in Chicago of Jefferson Township, Cook County constitutes the subject property. The 129-year-old, class 2-02 residence per the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance included one bathroom, a two-car garage, and a full basement. The appellant represented that assessment equity was the basis of the appeal.

Arguing the $31,297 assessment is inequitably high for the subject improvement, the appellant contends the assessment must be lowered to $20.48 per improvement square foot. To show the subject was not uniformly assessed, the appellant volunteered four class 2-03 structures within three blocks of the subject as assessment benchmarks. The appellant's proposed comparators all featured a two-car garage, a full basement, and one to three bathrooms. Moreover, these properties were between 56 and 124 years in building age; 1,064 and 1,764 in living square footage; and $12.57 and $21.54 per improvement square foot in assessment.

The county board of review maintained in its “Notes on Appeal” that the subject improvement was fairly assessed at $31,297, or $39.52 per living square foot. In defense of the $45,003 total subject assessment, the board of review nominated four frame improvements in the subject’s subarea as equity comparables. The county board of review’s selections featured a one- or two-car garage, one or 1.5 bathrooms, and a full basement. These suggested comparators ranged from 123 to 128 years in building age; 760 to 790 square feet in living area; and $39.56 to $42.26 per improvement square foot in assessment.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. The Illinois Constitution requires that real estate taxes “be levied uniformly by valuation ascertained as the General Assembly shall provide by law.” Ill. Const., art. IX, § 4 (1970); Walsh v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 181 Ill. 2d 228, 234 (1998). This uniformity provision of the Illinois Constitution does not require absolute equality in taxation, however; instead, a reasonable degree of uniformity in the taxing authority’s assessments suffices. Peacock v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 339 Ill. App. 3d 1060, 1070 (4th Dist. 2003).

When a property tax appeal is based on unequal treatment in the assessment, the appellant must prove the inequity of the assessments by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e); Walsh, 181 Ill. 2d at 234 (1998). Clear and convincing evidence means more than a preponderance of the evidence, but it does not need to approach the degree of proof needed for a criminal conviction. Bazyldo v. Volant, 164 Ill. 2d 207, 213 (1995). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation for the year in question of sufficiently similar properties showing the proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Property Tax Appeal Board (PTAB) finds the appellant did not surpass this burden of proof.

As the submissions most similar to the subject in size, board of review comparables #1 through #4 establish the range of equitable assessments for the subject improvement. Board of review comparable #1 substituted some of the subject’s garage size for an extra half bathroom. Meanwhile, the remaining comparators submitted by the board of review were inferior to the subject in that they contained less living space without offsetting that deficiency. By contrast, the appellant submitted properties that were at least 272 square feet larger than the subject and otherwise relatively incomparable to the subject. Given the best comparators in this record, PTAB finds the range of equitable assessments for the subject runs from $39.56 to $42.26 per improvement square foot. Because the subject’s $39.52 per improvement square foot assessment falls below this range, PTAB concludes the appellant did not demonstrate assessment inequity by clear and convincing evidence and a reduction in the assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
