

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Onix Lara
DOCKET NO.: 21-56865.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 13-14-427-013-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board (PTAB) are Onix Lara, the appellant, by attorney Joel R. Monarch, Attorney at Law in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, PTAB hereby finds No Change in the Cook County Board of Review's assessment of the property is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $15,750
IMPR.: $36,250
TOTAL: $52,000

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a Cook County Board of Review decision pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2021 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of an 1,755 square feet building of frame construction on a 3,150 square feet lot in Chicago, Jefferson Township, Cook County. The 114-year-old home, a class 2-03 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance, featured two bathrooms and a full basement. On the petition, the appellant selected assessment equity as the basis of the appeal.

Arguing the $36,250 subject improvement assessment is inequitable, the appellant contends the rate should be lowered to $16.50 per improvement square foot to be on par with those of similar properties. To show nonuniformity, the appellant put forth six properties within five blocks of the subject with improvement assessments between $13.05 and $18.93 per living square foot. The appellant's suggested comparables featured no air conditioning (except submission #1), one to two bathrooms, and a full basement. These potential comparators varied from 99 to 117 years in building age and from 1,600 to 1,935 square feet in improvement size.

The board of review countered that the subject improvement assessment of $36,250, or $20.66 per living square foot, was equitable in its “Notes on Appeal.” In defense of the $52,000 total subject assessment, the county board of review nominated four buildings on the subject’s block as equity comparables. The board of review’s preferred comparators all featured a full basement, a two-car garage, and air conditioning (except property #1). These properties were also between 115 and 122 years in building age; between 1,630 and 1,783 square feet in living area; and between $21.63 and $27.64 per living square foot in improvement assessment.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. The Illinois Constitution requires real estate taxes “be levied uniformly by valuation ascertained as the General Assembly shall provide by law.” Ill. Const., art. IX, § 4 (1970); Walsh v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 181 Ill. 2d 228, 234 (1998). Yet this uniformity provision of the Illinois Constitution does not require absolute equality in taxation; instead, a reasonable degree of uniformity in the taxing authority’s assessments suffices. Peacock v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 339 Ill. App. 3d 1060, 1070 (4th Dist. 2003).

When the ground for appeal is unequal treatment in the assessment, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e); Walsh, 181 Ill. 2d at 234 (1998). Clear and convincing evidence means more than a preponderance of the evidence, but it does not need to approach the degree of proof needed for a criminal conviction. Bazyldo v. Volant, 164 Ill. 2d 207, 213 (1995). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment should consist of assessment documentation for the year in question of similarly situated properties with compelling proximity to, and lack of distinguishing characteristics from, the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Property Tax Appeal Board (PTAB) finds the appellant fell short of satisfying this burden of proof.

Though they were all superior to the subject, board of review comparables #2 through #4 and appellant comparables #1, #2, and #4 were most similar to the subject in this record and therefore comprise the best evidence of assessment equity. Board of review comparables #2 through #4 had substantially similar living square footage but featured air conditioning and a two-car garage, which mitigated their substitution of one of the subject’s full bathrooms for a half bathroom. The appellant comparators likewise contained similar living space to the subject improvement but also included garages. Based on these comparators, the subject improvement would be equitably assessed from $13.14 to $27.64 per living square foot. Because the subject assessment of $20.66 per improvement square foot lands within this range, PTAB concludes the appellant did not demonstrate inequitable assessment by clear and convincing evidence and a reduction commensurate with the appellant’s request is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
