

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: M. E. Shober
DOCKET NO.: 21-56876.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 13-26-414-019-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board (PTAB) are M. E. Shober, the appellant, by attorney Joel R. Monarch, Attorney at Law in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, PTAB hereby finds No Change in the Cook County Board of Review's assessment of the property is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $19,740
IMPR.: $33,062
TOTAL: $52,802

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a Cook County Board of Review decision pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2021 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a 2,560 square feet, two-story frame structure on a 5,640 square feet lot in Chicago, Jefferson Township, Cook County. The 119-year-old home, a class 2-11 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance, included two bathrooms, a slab foundation, and a two-car garage. The appellant based the petition on assessment equity evidence.

Arguing the $33,062 subject improvement assessment is inequitable, the appellant contends that the assessment should be reduced to $11.44 per improvement square foot instead. To show that the subject assessment is not uniform, the appellant proposed seven class 2-11 properties within six blocks of the subject as equity comparables. These suggested comparators had two to 4.5 bathrooms, a one- to 2.5-car garage, and a full or partial basement. The appellant's selections further ranged between 104 and 119 years in building age; 2,634 and 2,748 in living square footage; and $11.10 and $11.65 per improvement square foot in assessment.

The board of review responded that the subject improvement was fairly assessed at $33,062, or $12.91 per living square foot in its “Notes on Appeal.” In defense of the $52,802 total subject assessment, the county board of review offered information about four two-story frame buildings within a quarter mile of the subject as assessment benchmarks. The board of review’s preferred comparables all featured two to three bathrooms, a two-car garage, and a full basement or slab foundation. These properties ranged from 115 to 128 years in building age; 2,254 to 2,770 square feet in improvement area; and $15.89 to $20.17 per improvement square foot in assessment.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. The Illinois Constitution requires real estate taxes “be levied uniformly by valuation ascertained as the General Assembly shall provide by law.” Ill. Const., art. IX, § 4 (1970); Walsh v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 181 Ill. 2d 228, 234 (1998). This uniformity provision of the Illinois Constitution does not require absolute equality in taxation, however; instead, a reasonable degree of uniformity in the taxing authority’s assessments suffices. Peacock v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 339 Ill. App. 3d 1060, 1070 (4th Dist. 2003).

When a property tax appeal is based on unequal treatment in the assessment, the appellant must prove the inequity of the assessments by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e); Walsh, 181 Ill. 2d at 234 (1998). Clear and convincing evidence means more than a preponderance of the evidence, but it does not need to approach the degree of proof needed for a criminal conviction. Bazyldo v. Volant, 164 Ill. 2d 207, 213 (1995). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation for the year in question of similarly situated properties of compelling proximity to, and with a lack of distinguishing characteristics from, the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Property Tax Appeal Board (PTAB) finds the appellant did not satisfy this burden of proof.

Of the parties’ submissions, board of review comparables #2 and #4 and appellant comparable #1 were most similar to the subject property and therefore constitute the best evidence of assessment equity in this record. Board of review comparable #2 was nearly identical to the subject, except that it boasted one extra half bathroom. Likewise, board of review comparable #4 included more living space and an extra full bathroom. By contrast, appellant comparable #1 traded some of the subject’s garage space for extra improvement square footage and a better basement. Given these comparables, the subject would be equitably assessed anywhere between $11.10 and $17.13 per improvement square foot. Because the subject’s $12.91 per improvement square foot assessment falls inside this range, PTAB finds the appellant did not produce the requisite evidence to justify a reduction in the subject assessment.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
