

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Hafsa Khan
DOCKET NO.: 21-56919.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 10-22-407-049-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board (PTAB) are Hafsa Khan, the appellant, by attorney Joel R. Monarch, Attorney at Law in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, PTAB hereby finds No Change in the Cook County Board of Review's assessment of the property is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $4,925
IMPR.: $18,819
TOTAL: $23,744

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a Cook County Board of Review decision pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2021 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a 1,001 square feet, one-story masonry building on a 5,185 square feet parcel in Skokie, Niles Township, Cook County. The 66-year-old home, a class 2-03 residence under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance, featured one bathroom, a full basement, and a two-car garage.

The appellant pleads assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal, arguing that the subject improvement assessment should be reduced to $13.81 per living square foot. To show subject assessment nonuniformity, the appellant presented information on six class 2-34 properties within four blocks of the subject. These suggested comparables included one to two bathrooms, a full basement, and a 1.5- or two-car garage. The appellant's selections spanned 66 to 71 years in building age; 1,194 to 1,380 square feet in improvement area; and $12.54 to $14.94 per living square foot in improvement assessment.

The board of review countered that the subject improvement assessment of $18,819, or $18.80 per living square foot, was equitable in its “Notes on Appeal.” In defense of the $23,744 total subject assessment, the county board of review introduced into evidence four one-story masonry buildings within a quarter mile of the subject as assessment comparables. The county board of review’s preferred comparators contained one or 1.5 bathrooms, a full basement, and air conditioning (except submission #3, which had no air conditioning). These improvements ranged from 57 to 65 years in building age; from 1,006 to 1,170 square feet in size; and $19.69 to $22.16 per living square foot in improvement assessment.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. The Illinois Constitution requires real estate taxes “be levied uniformly by valuation ascertained as the General Assembly shall provide by law.” Ill. Const., art. IX, § 4 (1970); Walsh v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 181 Ill. 2d 228, 234 (1998). Yet this uniformity provision of the Illinois Constitution does not require absolute equality in taxation; instead, a reasonable degree of uniformity in the taxing authority’s assessments suffices. Peacock v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 339 Ill. App. 3d 1060, 1070 (4th Dist. 2003).

When unequal treatment in the assessment is the basis of a property tax appeal, the appellant must prove the inequity of the assessments by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e); Walsh, 181 Ill. 2d at 234 (1998). Clear and convincing evidence means more than a preponderance of the evidence, but it does not need to approach the degree of proof required for a criminal conviction. Bazyldo v. Volant, 164 Ill. 2d 207, 213 (1995). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should comprise documentation for the year in question of similarly situated properties of compelling proximity to, and with a lack of distinguishing characteristics from, the assessment subject. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Property Tax Appeal Board (PTAB) finds the appellant did not overcome this burden of proof.

Of the properties in evidence, board of review comparables #2 through #4 establish the range of equitable subject improvement assessments by virtue of their demonstrable similarity to the subject. First, PTAB observes the appellant selected properties that differed from the subject improvement area by at least 193 square feet, many of which featured air conditioning. As such, the appellant’s purported comparables do not constitute the best evidence of assessment equity in this record. Rather, board of review comparable #3 most resembled the subject improvement in living area and air conditioning exclusion, though the comparator had an extra half bathroom. Meanwhile, both board of review comparables #2 and #4 were markedly superior to the subject because they each included more living space and air conditioning, which compensated for the comparators’ smaller garages. Given this record, the subject improvement would be equitably assessed between the comparables’ $21.63 to $22.16 per living square foot range. Because the subject’s $18.80 per improvement square foot assessment falls below this equitable range, PTAB finds the appellant did not provide sufficiently clear and convincing evidence that the subject assessment was inequitable or that a reduction thereof is justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
