

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: 1904 Lawndale LLC
DOCKET NO.: 21-57388.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 13-35-304-041-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are 1904 Lawndale LLC, the appellant, by attorney Brian P. Liston, of the Law Offices of Liston & Tsantilis, P.C. in Chicago, and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $11,250
IMPR.: $57,721
TOTAL: $68,971

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2021 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a three-story multi-family building of masonry exterior construction with 5,860 square feet of gross building area and which is approximately 110 years old. Features include a full unfinished basement and 6 bathrooms. The property has a 3,750 square foot site and is located in Chicago, Jefferson Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-11 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity concerning the improvement as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted information on three equity comparables located in the same neighborhood code and up to more than a mile from the subject. The evidence included county assessor printouts with additional details concerning the properties. The comparables consist of class 2-11 two-story or three-story buildings of masonry exterior construction that are 95 or 96 years old. The buildings range in size from 4,848 to 6,483 square feet of gross building area. Features include 3 or 4 bathrooms, a full basement, and comparables #1 and #2 have a two-car and a four-car garage, respectively. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $32,883 to $43,725 or from $6.72 to $6.83 per square foot of gross building area. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested a reduced improvement assessment of $39,496 or $6.74 per square foot of gross building area.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $68,971. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $57,721 or $9.85 per square foot of gross building area.

In support of its contention of the correct assessment, the board of review submitted information purportedly on four equity comparables, however, comparables #1 and #4 are the same property. The three comparables are located in the same neighborhood code as the subject and the subarea or within ¼ of a mile from the subject. The comparables consist of class 2-11 three-story buildings of masonry exterior construction that range in age from 93 to 118 years old. The buildings range in size from 4,827 to 6,418 square feet of gross building area. Two comparables have full basements with finished area and comparable #1 has a concrete slab foundation. Features include 4 bathrooms with two comparables also having 2 and 4 half-baths, respectively. Comparable #3 has central air conditioning and each comparable has a two-car garage. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $66,034 to $74,601 or from $10.62 to $15.45 per square foot of gross building area. Based on this evidence, the board of review requested confirmation of the subject's assessment.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The parties submitted a total of seven equity comparables to support their respective positions before the Property Tax Appeal Board. The Board has given reduced weight to the appellant's comparables #1 and #3, due to differences in story height and being more than a mile distant from the subject. The Board has given reduced weight to board of review comparables #2, due to differences in building size when compared to the subject and the other comparables in the record.

The Board finds the best comparables on the record to be appellant's comparable #2 and board of review comparables #1 and #3, which are each more similar to the subject building in story height, age, size, bathroom count, and some features. Board of review comparable #1 necessitates an upward adjustment for a slab foundation as compared to the subject's basement. Each of the best comparables necessitate downward adjustments for a garage amenity which is not a feature of the subject property. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $43,725 to $68,133 or from $6.74 to $12.60 per square foot of gross building area. The subject's improvement assessment of $57,721 or $9.85 per square foot of gross building area falls within the range of the best comparables in this record both in terms of overall improvement assessment and on a per-square-foot of gross building area basis.

The constitutional provision for uniformity of taxation and valuation does not require mathematical equality. The requirement is satisfied if the intent is evident to adjust the taxation burden with a reasonable degree of uniformity and if such is the effect of the statute enacted by the General Assembly establishing the method of assessing real property in its general operation. A practical uniformity, rather than an absolute one, is the test. Apex Motor Fuel Co. v. Barrett, 20 Ill. 2d 395 (1960). Although the comparables presented by the parties disclosed that properties located in the same area are not assessed at identical levels, all that the constitution requires is a practical uniformity which appears to exist on the basis of the evidence.

Based on this record and after considering appropriate adjustments to the best comparables in the record for differences when compared to the subject, the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
