

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Douglas Rescho
DOCKET NO.: 21-57485.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 05-27-200-055-1089

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Douglas Rescho, the appellant; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds A Reduction in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $7,150
IMPR.: $28,709
TOTAL: $35,859

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a favorable decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board pursuant to section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-185) challenging the assessment for the 2021 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a single condominium unit within a multi-story 110-unit condominium building. The subject has 1,880 square feet of living area and a .9537% ownership interest in the condominium. The property is approximately 50 years old and is located in Wilmette, New Trier Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-99 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends the assessment of the subject property as established by the decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board for the 2020 tax year should be carried forward to the 2021 tax year pursuant to section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code. (35 ILCS 200/16-185). The appellant disclosed that the subject property is an owner-occupied residence that was the subject matter of an appeal before the Property Tax Appeal Board the prior year under Docket Number 20-27034.001-R-1. In that appeal the Property Tax Appeal Board issued a decision lowering the assessment of the subject property to $35,859 based on the evidence submitted by the parties. The appellant asserted that tax years 2020 and 2021 are within the same general assessment period.

The appellant completed Sec. IV – Recent Sale Data of the appeal petition disclosing the subject sold February 27, 2019 for a price of $389,865. The appellant also submitted information on four comparables located within the subject's building. As the appeal petition lacked the appellant's assessment claim, the Board issued an Incomplete Appeal Checklist. In response, the appellant submitted information regarding four additional comparables.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $47,258. The evidence provided by the board of review further disclosed that no township equalization factor was applied in 2021.

In support of its contention of the correct assessment, the board of review submitted a document entitled Condominium Analysis Results for 2022 prepared by Ashton Language in which it used 36 comparable sales to arrive at a full value of the condominium building of $50,511,254. Multiplying the full value of the condominium building by the percentage of ownership in the condominium unit under appeal of .9537% results in a market value of $481,726. Applying the 10% Ordinance level of assessment for class 2-99 property results in a total assessment for the unit under appeal of $48,173.

In rebuttal, the appellant argued the subject's assessment was inequitable and should be reduced based on its recent sale.

Conclusion of Law

The appellant raised a contention of law asserting that the assessment of the subject property as established by the Property Tax Appeal Board for the 2020 tax year should be carried forward to the 2021 tax year pursuant to section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code. (35 ILCS 200/16-185). When a contention of law is raised the burden of proof is a preponderance of the evidence. (See 5 ILCS 100/10-15). The Board finds the appellant met this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted.

The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that the assessment as established by the Board for the 2020 tax year should be carried forward to the tax year at issue subject only to equalization as provided by section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code.

Section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-185) states in part:

If the Property Tax Appeal Board renders a decision lowering the assessment of a particular parcel on which a residence occupied by the owner is situated, such reduced assessment, subject to equalization, shall remain in effect for the remainder of the general assessment period as provided in Sections 9-215 through 9-225, unless that parcel is subsequently sold in an arm's length transaction establishing a fair cash value for the parcel that is different from the fair cash value on which the Board's assessment is based, or unless the decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board is reversed or modified upon review.

The record disclosed the Property Tax Appeal Board issued a decision reducing the subject's assessment for the 2020 tax year. The record further indicates that the subject property is an owner-occupied dwelling and that 2020 and 2021 are within the same general assessment period. The record contains no evidence indicating the subject property sold in an arm's length transaction after the Board's decision or that the decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board has been reversed or modified upon review. The record also disclosed that no township equalization factor was applied in 2021. For these reasons the Property Tax Appeal Board finds that a reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted to reflect the assessment as established in the Board's prior year's decision plus the application of an equalization factor, if any.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
