The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Michael Covey, the appellant, by attorney Chris D. Sarris of Steven B. Pearlman & Associates in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds a reduction in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board pursuant to section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-185) challenging the assessment for the 2021 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of two parcels that are improved with a two-story dwelling of frame and masonry exterior construction with 4,238 square feet of living area. The dwelling was constructed in 2006 and is approximately 15 years old. Features of the home include a full basement, central air conditioning, a fireplace and a three-car garage. The property is located in Arlington Heights, Wheeling Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-08 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends the assessment of the subject property as established by the decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board for the 2020 tax year should be carried forward to the 2021 tax year pursuant to section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code. (35 ILCS 200/16-185). The appellant disclosed that the subject property is an owner-occupied residence that was the subject matter of an appeal before the Property Tax Appeal Board the prior year under Docket Number 20-49400.

In that appeal the Property Tax Appeal Board issued a decision lowering the combined total assessment of the subject property to $84,500 based on an agreement by the parties. The appellant asserted that this tax year is within the same general assessment period.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal." The board of review also disclosed that 2019 was the beginning of the general assessment period for the subject property and that no township equalization factor was applied in 2021 by county assessment officials. The board of review did not challenge the appellant's assertions that the 2020 and 2021 tax years are within the same general assessment period or that the subject property is an owner-occupied dwelling.

In support of its contention of the subject's assessment, the board of review submitted information on four comparable properties, which included equity data for each comparable and sales data for comparable #1. Based on this evidence, the board of review requested confirmation of the subject's assessment.

In rebuttal, counsel for the appellant requested a reduction in the subject's assessment pursuant to 35 ILCS 200/16-185, since the subject property satisfied all the necessary elements of filing a successful rollover appeal. Counsel argued that 35 ILCS 200/16-18 makes it mandatory on the Property Tax Appeal Board through the use of the word "SHALL," to "Rollover" the prior year's decision value to the instant year. Due to this mandatory language, the appellant's counsel argued that it is not necessary to rebut the board of review's evidence.

Conclusion of Law

The appellant raised a contention of law asserting that the assessment of the subject property as established by the Property Tax Appeal Board for the 2020 tax year should be carried forward to the 2021 tax year pursuant to section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code. (35 ILCS 200/16-185). When a contention of law is raised the burden of proof is a preponderance of the evidence. (See 5 ILCS 100/10-15). The Board finds the appellant met this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted.

The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that the assessment as established by the Board for the 2020 tax year should be carried forward to the 2021 tax year at issue subject only to equalization as provided by section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code.

Section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-185) states in part:

If the Property Tax Appeal Board renders a decision lowering the assessment of a particular parcel on which a residence occupied by the owner is situated, such reduced assessment, subject to equalization, shall remain in effect for the remainder of the general assessment period as provided in Sections 9-215 through 9-225, unless that parcel is subsequently sold in an arm's length transaction establishing a fair cash value for the parcel that is different from the fair cash value on which the Board's assessment is based, or unless the decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board is reversed or modified upon review.

The record disclosed the Property Tax Appeal Board issued a decision reducing the subject's assessment for the 2020 tax year. The record further indicates that the subject property is an owner-occupied dwelling and that 2020 and 2021 are within the same general assessment period. The record contains no evidence indicating the subject property sold in an arm's length transaction after the Board's decision or that the decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board has been reversed or modified upon review. The record also disclosed that a township equalization factor was not applied in the 2021 tax year by county assessment officials. For these reasons the Property Tax Appeal Board finds that a reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted to reflect the assessment as established in the Board's prior year's decision.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
