

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Marian Hofherr
DOCKET NO.: 21-58299.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 05-30-100-045-1052

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Marian Hofherr, the appellant(s), by attorney Christopher G. Walsh, Jr., of Walsh Law, LLC in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds A Reduction in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $5,025
IMPR.: $24,975
TOTAL: $30,000

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board pursuant to section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-185) challenging the assessment for the 2021 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property is a third-floor, owner-occupied residential condominium unit with a 0.81% ownership interest in the common elements. It is located within a 19-year-old, multi-story masonry building situated on a 539,484-square-foot site in Northfield, New Trier Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a Class 2-99 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends that the assessment of the subject property as established by the decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board for the 2020 tax year should be carried forward to the 2021 tax year pursuant to section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code. (35 ILCS 200/16-185). The appellant disclosed that the subject property is an owner-occupied residence that was the subject matter of an appeal before the Property Tax Appeal Board 2020 under Docket Number 20-31760.001-R-1. In that appeal the Property Tax Appeal Board issued a decision lowering the assessment of the subject property to $30,000 based on the evidence submitted by the parties. The appellant asserted that tax year 2020 and 2021 are within the same general assessment period.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing that it stipulates in this appeal to a total assessment amount of $45,148. The board of review submitted a Condominium Analysis report for 2021 that was prepared by Dana Pointer.

Conclusion of Law

The appellant raised a contention of law asserting that the assessment of the subject property as established by the Property Tax Appeal Board for the 2020 tax year should be carried forward to the 2021 tax year pursuant to section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code. (35 ILCS 200/16-185). When a contention of law is raised the burden of proof is a preponderance of the evidence. (See 5 ILCS 100/10-15). The Board finds the appellant met this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted.

The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that the assessment established by the Board for the 2020 tax year should be carried forward to the tax year at issue subject only to equalization as provided by section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code.

Section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-185) states in part:

If the Property Tax Appeal Board renders a decision lowering the assessment of a particular parcel on which a residence occupied by the owner is situated, such reduced assessment, subject to equalization, shall remain in effect for the remainder of the general assessment period as provided in Sections 9-215 through 9-225, unless that parcel is subsequently sold in an arm's length transaction establishing a fair cash value for the parcel that is different from the fair cash value on which the Board's assessment is based, or unless the decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board is reversed or modified upon review.

The record discloses that the Property Tax Appeal Board issued a decision reducing the subject property's assessment for the 2020 tax year. The record further indicates that the subject property is an owner-occupied dwelling and that tax years 2020 and 2021 fall within the same general assessment period. The record contains no evidence that the subject property sold in an arm's-length transaction subsequent to the Board's prior decision, nor is there any indication that the Board's 2020 decision has been reversed or modified upon review. For these reasons, the Property Tax Appeal Board finds that a reduction in the subject property's assessment is warranted to reflect the assessment established in the Board's prior year decision, subject to the application of any applicable equalization factor.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
