

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Dixon Whitson
DOCKET NO.: 22-04064.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 05-10-102-013

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Dixon Whitson, the appellant, by attorney Jerrold H. Mayster of Mayster & Chaimson, Ltd in Chicago; and the Lake County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds no change in the assessment of the property as established by the Lake County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $45,847
IMPR.: $62,645
TOTAL: $108,492

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a 2021 final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board pursuant to section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-185) in order to challenge the assessment for the 2022 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property is improved with a one-story dwelling of wood siding exterior construction containing 2,296 square feet of living area.¹ The dwelling was built in 1962 and is approximately 60 years old. Features of the home include a partial basement, a fireplace and an attached garage with 594 square feet of building area. The subject property also has a 648 square foot inground swimming pool. The property has an approximately 20,557 square foot site and is located in Fox Lake, Grant Township, Lake County.

The appellant contends the assessment of the subject property as established by the decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board for the 2021 tax year should be carried forward to the 2022 tax year pursuant to section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code. (35 ILCS 200/16-185). The appellant disclosed that the subject property is an owner-occupied residence that was the subject matter of an appeal before the Property Tax Appeal Board the prior year under Docket Number 21-07678.001-R-1. In that appeal the Property Tax Appeal Board issued a decision lowering the assessment of the subject property to $102,264 based on an agreement by the parties. The appellant's attorney asserted that tax years 2021 and 2022 are within the same general assessment period.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $108,492. The Notes on Appeal indicated that the township's general assessment period began in 2019 and runs through tax year 2022. It further indicated that an equalization factor of 1.0609 was applied to all non-farm property in Grant Township in tax year 2022.

In an attached letter, the board of review asserted the subject property was the subject matter of an appeal before the Property Tax Appeal Board for the 2021 tax year under Docket Number 21-07678.001-R-1. In that appeal, the Property Tax Appeal Board issued a decision reducing the subject's assessment to $102,264. The board of review further explained that the subject is located in Grant Township, received a general homestead exemption in 2022, and should have a 2022 assessed value of $108,492 after the application of the 2022 equalization factor of 1.0609. Based on this evidence, the board of review requested that the subject property's assessed value be sustained.

Conclusion of Law

The appellant raised a contention of law asserting that the assessment of the subject property as established by the Property Tax Appeal Board for the 2021 tax year should be carried forward to the 2022 tax year pursuant to section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code. (35 ILCS 200/16-185). When a contention of law is raised the burden of proof is a preponderance of the evidence. (See 5 ILCS 100/10-15). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that the assessment as established by the Board for the 2021 tax year should be carried forward to the tax year at issue subject only to equalization as provided by section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code.

Section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-185) states in part:

If the Property Tax Appeal Board renders a decision lowering the assessment of a particular parcel on which a residence occupied by the owner is situated, such reduced assessment, subject to equalization, shall remain in effect for the remainder of the general assessment period as provided in Sections 9-215 through 9-225, unless that parcel is subsequently sold in an arm's length transaction establishing a fair cash value for the parcel that is different from the fair cash value on which the Board's assessment is based, or unless the decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board is reversed or modified upon review.

The record disclosed the Property Tax Appeal Board issued a decision reducing the subject's assessment for the 2021 tax year. The record further indicates that the subject property is an owner-occupied dwelling and that 2021 and 2022 are within the same general assessment period. The record contains no evidence indicating the subject property sold in an arm's length transaction after the Board's decision or that the decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board has been reversed or modified upon review. The record also disclosed that a township equalization factor of 1.0609 was applied in 2022. Applying section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code results in an assessment of $108,492, which is equivalent to the 2022 assessment of the subject property as established by the Lake County Board of Review. After considering the requirements of section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code, the Property Tax Appeal Board finds that a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
