

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Hao Vien Du
DOCKET NO.: 22-24258.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 07-17-307-008-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Hao Vien Du, the appellant, by attorney Noah J. Schmidt, of Schmidt Salzman & Moran, Ltd. in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $9,240
IMPR.: $31,759
TOTAL: $40,999

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2022 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a 2-story dwelling of frame exterior construction with 2,638 square feet of living area. The dwelling is approximately 43 years old. The home features an unfinished basement, central air conditioning, a fireplace and a 2-car garage. The property has a 9,727 square foot site and is located in Schaumburg, Schaumburg County. The subject is classified as a class 2-78 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity with respect to the improvement as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument the appellant submitted information on five comparables located within Hoffman Estate, Roselle, or Schaumburg, Illinois and within a different assessment neighborhood than the subject property. The comparables consist of class 2-78, 2-story dwellings of frame or frame and masonry exterior construction ranging in size from 2,059 to 2,880 square feet of living area. The dwellings are 22 to 43 years old. Each comparable has a basement with three having finished area, central air conditioning and either a 2-car, a 2½-car or a 3-car garage. Four comparables each have a fireplace. The comparables have improvement assessments that range from $7,198 to $8,662 or from $2.54 to $3.86 per square foot of living area. The appellant requested the subject's total assessment be reduced.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal." The appellant submitted a copy of the Cook County Board of Review final decision disclosing the subject has a total assessment for the subject of $40,999. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $31,759 or $12.04 per square foot of living area.

In support of its contention of the correct assessment the board of review submitted information on four comparables located within Schaumburg, Illinois in the subject's assessment neighborhood, the subject's block or approximately ¼ of a mile from the subject property. One comparable is also located along the same street as the subject. The comparables consist of class 2-78, 2-story dwellings of frame exterior construction ranging in size from 2,283 to 2,493 square feet of living area. The dwellings are 36 to 44 years old. Three comparables each have a basement with one having finished area, and one comparable has a slab foundation. Each comparable has central air conditioning and a 2-car garage. Three comparables each have a fireplace. The comparables have improvement assessments that range from $29,688 to $34,688 or from $12.26 to $14.18 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the board of review requested confirmation of the subject's assessment.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The parties submitted nine comparables for the Board's consideration. The Board gives less weight to the appellant's comparables that are located within a different assessment neighborhood and/or city than the subject. Appellant's comparables #3 and #5 are also less similar to the subject in dwelling size than the other comparables in the record. The Board also gives less weight to the board of review comparable #4 which lacks a basement, which is a feature of subject.

The Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity to be the board of review comparables #1, #2 and #3 which are located in the same assessment neighborhood and city as the subject property. These comparables are also relatively similar to the subject in design, age, dwelling size, and most features. These three comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $30,143 to $34,688 or from $12.26 to $14.18 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $31,759 or $12.04 per square foot of living area falls within the range established by the best comparables in the record on an overall basis and below the range on a per-square-foot basis. After considering the economies of scale and adjustments to the best comparables for differences from the subject, the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
