

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Mark Kaufmann
DOCKET NO.: 22-24422.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 05-06-400-037-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Mark Kaufmann, the appellant, by attorney Abby L. Strauss, of Schiller Law P.C. in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $53,911
IMPR.: $76,036
TOTAL: $129,947

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2022 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a 2-story dwelling of frame exterior construction with 3,414 square feet of living area. The dwelling is approximately 111 years old. Features of the home include a full basement, central air conditioning and 2 fireplaces. The property has a 24,505 square foot site and is located in Glencoe, New Trier Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-06 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity with respect to the improvement as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted information on six equity comparables that are located within the same assessment neighborhood as the subject. The comparables consist of class 2-06 dwellings of frame exterior construction ranging in size from 2,911 to 3,725 square feet of living area. The dwellings are 105 to 134 years old. The dwellings have full basements and 1 or 2 fireplaces. One comparable has central air conditioning, and five comparables each have a 2-car garage. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $53,784 to $63,291 or from $15.32 to $18.54 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested that the improvement assessment be reduced to $59,301 or $17.37 per square foot of living area.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal." The appellant submitted a copy of the Cook County Board of Review final decision for the 2022 tax year disclosing the total assessment for the subject property of $129,947. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $76,036 or $22.27 per square foot of living area.

In support of its contention of the correct assessment, the board of review submitted information on four comparables that are located within the same assessment neighborhood as the subject and within the subject's same block or approximately $\frac{1}{4}$ of a mile from the subject property. The comparables consist of class 2-06, 2-story dwellings of frame, masonry or frame and masonry exterior construction ranging in size from 3,223 to 3,739 square feet of living area. The comparables are 95 to 101 years old. The dwellings have partial or full basements and 1 or 2 fireplaces. Three comparables each have central air conditioning, and three comparables each have a 2-car garage. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from \$74,749 to \$100,884 or from \$22.85 to \$27.99 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the board of review requested the assessment be confirmed.

In written rebuttal, counsel for the appellant pointed out the board of review comparables #1, #2 and #3 differ in construction type to the subject dwelling.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The parties submitted ten equity comparables for the Board's consideration. The Board gives less weight to the appellant's comparables #1, #2, #5 and #6 as well as the board of review comparable #1 which are considerably less similar to the subject in age and/or dwelling size than the other comparables in the record.

The Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity to be the parties' remaining comparables. These comparables are relatively similar to the subject in location, age, dwelling size, and foundation type, except four comparables have a garage amenity, which is not a feature of the subject. These five comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $62,768 to $100,884 or from $17.45 to $27.99 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $76,036 or $22.27 per square foot of living area falls within the range established by the best comparables in this record. After considering adjustments to the best comparables for differences from the subject, the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

The constitutional provision for uniformity of taxation and valuation does not require mathematical equality. A practical uniformity, rather than an absolute one, is the test. Apex Motor Fuel Co. v. Barrett, 20 Ill.2d 395 (1960). Although the comparables presented by the parties disclosed that the properties located in the same area are not assessed at identical levels, all that the constitution requires is a practical uniformity, which appears to exist on the basis of the evidence.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
