

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: William McGuire
DOCKET NO.: 22-24507.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 05-34-403-001-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are William McGuire, the appellant, by attorney Christopher M. Caira, of KBC Law Group, in Chicago, and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $32,777
IMPR.: $82,222
TOTAL: $114,999

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2022 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a two-story dwelling of masonry exterior construction with 2,800 square feet of living area and which is approximately 114 years old. Features include a basement, 2 full bathrooms, one fireplace, and a two-car garage. The property has an 11,919 square foot site and is located in Wilmette, New Trier Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-06 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity concerning the improvement as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted information on four equity comparables located in the same neighborhood code as the subject and either .5 of a mile or 1-mile from the subject. The comparables consist of class 2-06 two-story dwellings of masonry exterior construction. The dwellings range in age from 92 to 106 years old. The dwellings range in size from 3,008 to 3,220 square feet of living area. Features include a full basement, central air conditioning, 1, 2 or 3 bathrooms, one or two fireplaces and either a 1.5-car or a 2-car garage. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $81,313 to $92,581 or from $27.03 to $28.75 per square foot of living area.

Based on this evidence, the appellant requested a reduced improvement assessment of $77,868 or $27.81 per square foot of living area.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $114,999. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $82,222 or $29.37 per square foot of living area.

In support of its contention of the correct assessment, the board of review submitted information on four equity comparables located in the same neighborhood code as the subject and same block or ¼ of a mile from the subject. The comparables consist of class 2-06 two-story dwellings of stucco or masonry exterior construction which range in age from 104 to 114 years old. The dwellings range in size from 2,711 to 2,968 square feet of living area. The comparables have full or partial basements, 2 or 3 full bathrooms, three comparables also have 1 or 3 half-baths, and a two-car or a three-car garage. Two comparables each have central air conditioning, and three comparables each have a fireplace. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $84,609 to $90,287 or from $29.75 to $32.92 per square foot of living area.

Based on this evidence, the board of review requested confirmation of the subject's assessment.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The parties submitted a total of eight suggested equity comparables to support their respective positions before the Property Tax Appeal Board. The Board has given reduced weight to appellant's comparables #1, #2 and #3, due to differences in location when compared to the subject as each of these comparables are a mile from the subject whereas other comparables in the record are closer in proximity to the subject.

The Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity consists of appellant's comparable #4 as well as the board of review comparables, which present varying degrees of similarity to the subject. All of the comparables share the same neighborhood code, classification code, story height, and foundation type. The subject lacks central air conditioning, but three of the five best comparables necessitate downward adjustments for having air conditioning. Adjustments are also necessary for differences in age, bathroom count, fireplace amenity/count, garage capacity, and/or dwelling size when compared to the subject in order to make the comparables more similar to the subject. The best comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $84,609 to $92,581 or from $28.75 to $32.92 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $82,222 or $29.37 per square foot of living area is below the range of the best comparables in the record in terms of overall improvement assessment and within the range on a per-square-foot of living area basis.

The constitutional provision for uniformity of taxation and valuation does not require mathematical equality. The requirement is satisfied if the intent is evident to adjust the taxation burden with a reasonable degree of uniformity and if such is the effect of the statute enacted by the General Assembly establishing the method of assessing real property in its general operation. A practical uniformity, rather than an absolute one, is the test. Apex Motor Fuel Co. v. Barrett, 20 Ill. 2d 395 (1960). Although the comparables presented by the parties disclosed that properties located in the same area are not assessed at identical levels, all that the constitution requires is a practical uniformity which appears to exist on the basis of the evidence.

Based on this record and after considering appropriate adjustments to the best comparables for differences from the subject to make the comparables more similar to the subject, the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
