

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Hiren Shah
DOCKET NO.: 22-26032.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 07-23-207-011-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Hiren Shah, the appellant; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds A Reduction in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $19,195
IMPR.: $33,029
TOTAL: $52,224

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2022 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a 32-year-old, two-story, single-family dwelling of frame construction with 2,506 square feet of living area. Features of the home include a full unfinished basement, central air conditioning, a fireplace and a two-car garage. The property has a 13,711 square foot site and is located in Schaumburg, Schaumburg Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-78 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument the appellant submitted information on three suggested equity comparables, all located within two blocks of the subject property. All comparables were improved with a two-story, single-family dwelling of frame construction with a full basement, central air conditioning, a fireplace and two-car garage. The improvements ranged: in age between 30 to 32 years old; in size between 2,506 to 3,191 square feet of living area; and in improvement assessment from $12.78 to $13.18 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested the subject property's assessment be reduced to $49,593.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $52,999. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $33,804 or $13.49 per square foot of living area. In support of its contention of the correct assessment the board of review submitted information on four equity comparables, all located within a block of the subject property.

In written rebuttal the appellant highlighted the similarities between the subject property and his selected comparables.

During the June 25, 2024, hearing, appellant testified that his comparables are similar in size, characteristics and location to the subject property and are assessed at less than the subject property, supporting his request for a reduced assessment.

The board of review failed to appear at the hearing and was in default pursuant to 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.69(b).

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer asserts assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. The Illinois Constitution requires that real estate taxes, "be levied uniformly by valuation ascertained as the General Assembly shall provide by law." Ill. Const. art. IX, §4 (1970); Walsh v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 181 Ill. 2d 228, 234 (1998). This uniformity provision of the Illinois Constitution does not require absolute equality in taxation, however, and it is sufficient if the taxing authority achieves a reasonable degree of uniformity. Peacock v. Property Tax Appeal Board, 339 Ill. App. 3d 1060, 1070 (4th Dist. 2003).

As a preliminary matter, because the board of review was in default for failing to appear at the hearing, this Board will not give any weight to the evidence submitted in its Notes on Appeal. Therefore, the remaining evidence before this Board is the three equity comparables submitted by the appellant.

When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e); Walsh, 181 Ill. 2d at 234 (1998). Clear and convincing evidence means more than a preponderance of the evidence, but it does not need to approach the degree of proof needed for a conviction of a crime. Bazyldo v. Volant, 164 Ill. 2d 207, 213 (1995). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted.

The Board finds the best and only evidence of assessment equity to be appellant's comparables #1 through #3. These comparables ranged in improvement assessment of $12.78 to $13.18 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $13.49 per square foot of living area falls above the range established by the best comparables in this record. This Board notes that two of these comparables have more living area square footage than the subject property. However, the comparables have nearly identical amenities and are very similar in age, construction and location to the subject property. Accordingly, the Board determines that the appellant has established by clear and convincing evidence that the subject property was inequitably assessed, and a reduction is warranted, but the reduction is not as large as the one appellant seeks.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
