

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Russell Cora
DOCKET NO.: 22-30372.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 10-11-313-011-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Russell Cora, the appellant(s), by attorney John Rock, of Rock Fusco & Connelly, LLC in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds A Reduction in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $25,622
IMPR.: $52,395
TOTAL: $78,017

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

Appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2022 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a 99-year-old, two-story, single-family dwelling of masonry construction with 2,281 square feet of living area. The property has a 10,676 square foot site located in Evanston, Evanston Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-06 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

Appellant contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, appellant submitted information on five suggested equity comparables. Each comparable was improved with a two-story residence of masonry construction. The comparables ranged: between 2,267 and 2,638 square feet of living area; in assessment between $22.43 and $23.79 per square foot of living area; and in age between 89 and 97 years old. Appellant also submitted a copy of the board of review's written decision reflecting its final total assessment for the subject property of $89,057. Based on this evidence, appellant requested a reduction in the subject's assessment to $78,017.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total valuation assessment for the subject of $89,057 and an improvement assessment of $63,435, or $27.81 per square foot of living area. The board of review did not submit any comparable properties.

In rebuttal, appellant submitted a brief stating the board of review's evidence consists of one page of its Notes on Appeal and descriptive data for the subject property. Appellant contends appellant submitted comparables that are similar to the subject property and close to it in proximity.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds appellant did meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted.

The Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity to be appellant's comparables #2, #3, and #5. These comparables were most similar to the subject property in living area square footage. The best comparables had improvement assessments that ranged from $22.74 to $23.79 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $27.81 per square foot of living area falls above the range established by the best comparables in this record. The board of review did not submit any comparable properties. Based on this record, the Board finds appellant did demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
